NO EVIDENCE OF OTHER VEHICLE IN DAVIS DEATH

A coroner's jury Friday afternoon found that Robert L. Davis, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, York Springs R. 1, came to his death early on the evening of August 21 from accidental causes and failed to find any evidence another vehicle was involved.

The Davis boy had been driving his father's tractor home from a York Springs garage when it left a sharp curve as a rear wheel broke on a steep grade on a country road not far from the Davis home and rolled over, fracturing the boy's skull and crushing his chest. The boy died instantly.

The inquest was conducted by the Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, who had learned of reports from the victim's father that there were persons who "knew about the accident" or had been involved in it.

NO COLLISION

State Trooper Clifford Lighter of the Gettysburg substation of the state police told the jury there was no indication of a collision or that any other vehicle had been involved in the tragedy. He said all of the "tips" were run down and the results were completely negative.

The officer placed the time of the accident at 6:30 p.m. and said he had been unable to find any witnesses. Dr. Crist had the officer relate charges by the victim's father which were made at a conference a week ago at the state police barracks here as the coroner attempted to run down reports that others had been at the scene or involved in the accident.

Vance Stitzel, York Springs garage man who had repaired the tractor's started during the day, said he saw the wrecked machine after the accident and saw no indications of a collision. Harold Davis, the boy's father, recounted events of the evening of the accident and told of a pickup truck that had passed his house "like a streak" sometime before Davis learned of the accident. He made no accusations from the stand.

HAD STOPPED TRACTOR

Ronald Huff, 19, York Springs, testified he passed the Davis boy about a mile from the accident scene and said Davis had stopped his tractor and waved Huff around the tractor. Huff saw no other vehicles on that road and learned of the accident three hours later.

Mervin Masemer, Latimore Twp., said he left his home for Gettysburg at 6:20 p.m. the day of the accident, did not travel the road the boy and tractor were using and did not see them. He had a visiting state trooper in his car to bear out his story. Rumors had named both Huff and Masemer as possibly involved in the accident.

Testimony in the case was completed in 40 minutes and the jury returned its verdict by 5 p.m. while a second inquest was in progress.

Hugh C. McIlhenny was foreman of the Davis jury that included J. Harold Miller, William Timmins Jr., Harold Ecker, Frank Linn and Bernard Linn.

MAY SETTLE TRESPASS SUIT

November 13 at 10 a.m. was by the Adams County court for a hearing on a proposal to settle for $8,500 an action in trespass brought as a result of the October 2 death of a Hanover R. 4 youth.

The proposed settlement calls for payment of $807.90, expenses for the funeral, grave marker and ambulance, to the administrator of the estate under the "wrongful death" action, payment of $7,192.10 under the "wrongful death" action with one-half of that amount to go to the father, Paul E. Steich, and one-half to the mother, Doris L. Steich, and payment of $500 to the estate under the survival action.

GENEVA (AP) — The International Red Cross Committee formally declared its willingness today to help supervise dismantling of Soviet rockets and bases on Cuba, if all parties agree.

A spokesman told newsmen the all-Swiss humanitarian organization is sending its former president, Paul Ruegger, to New York to meet with U.N. Acting Secretary-General U. Thant. Ruegger, former Swiss minister in Rome, will leave here early next week.

The spokesman declined to elaborate, saying only that the task is expected of the committee "goes far beyond the traditional humanitarian activities of this institution."

Six Teachers Are Killed When Vehicle Is Crushed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The death of six Akron school teachers whose car was virtually flattened in a collision with a big truck was called a tragic loss today by Martin Essex, superintendent of Akron schools.

Five of the women killed in the grinding crash on the Willow Freeway south of Cleveland taught at David Hill Elementary School. They had attended sessions of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association here.

The victims were identified as Mrs. Lois C. Lewis, 41; Mrs. Mildred Whitely, 62; Mrs. Catherine Williamson, 52; Mrs. C. Edith Miller, 67; Mrs. Julia Ann Johnson, 57; and Mrs. Frances T. Stocum, 57, owner of the car.

Mrs. Johnson taught at Voris Elementary School.

The tragedy wiped out nearly one-fifth of the teaching staff of 27 at David Hill. Except for Mrs. Stocum, who was in her second year of teaching, all were veterans. Mrs. Johnson had taught for 33 years. Mrs. Whitely 24 years. Justin J. Gedraitis, 35, of Cleveland, driver of the truck, suffered head injuries but his condition was reported as good in the prison ward at Metropolitan Hospital. No charges were filed.

JURORS BLAME HERSHEY MAN AT INQUEST

An Adams County coroner's jury Friday afternoon found Virgil E. Warner, 43, Hershey, at fault in an accident September 25, 20 feet south of the York County line on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd.

Lester D. Plumb, 56, Clearwater, Fla., died about two weeks after the accident at the Warner Hospital. He had suffered a broken leg, lacerations of the face, contusions of the chest and abrasions and contusions of the legs. The death, according to an autopsy performed at the time, was caused by lobar pneumonia, the jury was told.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, officiated at the inquest held in the courthouse. The jury found that Plumb had suffered the injuries which ultimately resulted "Plumb's car being in a collision with an auto operated by Virgil Warner into the path of Mr. Plumb's car."

OFFICER TESTIFIES

State Policeman Clifford Lightner and Elmer Dixon, 38, Jeanette, Pa., a state highways engineer, were the two principal witnesses. Warner was present at the inquest but did not testify.

Officer Lightner, who had been called to the scene of the accident, testified at the position of the cars after the accident.

The only witness "out of about 40 cars there" was Warner. Lightner said Warner told him he had been following a yellow sedan north and that the sedan had stopped in the rain suddenly without signal and Warner's car hit it. As a result Lightner said he believed that Plumb's car, wrecked nearby, had been headed north in front of Warner's auto.

Lightner said Plumb's car had been traveling south followed by Dixon. Plumb and Dixon told the officer that Warner's northbound auto had cut across the highway into the path of the southbound Plumb car and Plumb's auto had thus struck the Warner auto. The officer described the damage to the two cars involved.

CELEBRATED TRAGIC

"It would be a tragic thing if America has lost interest in its past. # LIBRARY MAY OPEN $100,000 FINANCE DRIVE

The Adams County Public Library board Friday night took further steps towards a campaign to raise $100,000 or more next spring and secure a matching amount from the federal government in order to enlarge and improve the present library building.

Final details of the program were not worked out, but if federal matching funds can be secured and if a capital gains campaign next spring brings in the funds required, then the library will proceed with planned enlargement which will include construction of a "children's room" east of the present library; construction of a large stack room connecting with the present stack room; construction of a new garage large enough to house the two bookmobiles and construction and remodeling of present portions of the structure to provide enlarged reading room and work space.

Keefer said he had previously met with the official in Washington who will handle the application.

WCD SPEAKER TELLS OF SURE WAY TO PEACE

"Jesus may call His peacemakers the sons of God but the world is more likely to brand them sentimentalists, dreamers or even Communists," declared Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer, professor of theology at the Lutheran Seminary, declare in his sermon at the World Community Day service in the Methodist Church Friday evening. His topic was: "Waging Peace."

"The Christian peacemaker is more interested in the long-term strategy for peace than short-term safeguards against war," he continued. "The real tragedy of our time is that though everybody seems to detest and speak against war, we are all caught in a vicious pattern we cannot seem to break. We have been brought to a sense of insecurity and helplessness in our search for security through military might. The great temptation is to allow the circumstances of our time, the gravity of world tension, to keep us from taking seriously Jesus' beatitude 'blessed are the peacemakers.' We acquiesce into a state of passiveness and inaction. We despair."

"PEACE IS MADE"

"Peace in the world, peace among groups, does not 'just come,' peace is 'made.' It is made by lovers and makers of peace. We must rid ourselves of the fatuous idea that preparation for war is the best preparation for peace. Standby armies, standby battle-ships and standby bombs may hold off war, but they do not make peace."

"The Apostle Paul urged Christians to 'have their feet shod with the equipment of the gospel of peace.' With the intensity with which men and nations are called to battle for peace, we dare not despair in the struggle for reconciliation. It calls for a long-term strategy . . . the strategy of reconciliation between peoples calls for understanding to put to flight ignorance and gross misunderstanding. It demands the cleansing of motive and purification of intentions. It needs the true sense of identification, whereby men may truly enter into other men's sufferings, hardships and honest aspirations."

"Peacemakers will enter into the active and selfless ministry of ridding mankind of the scourge of poverty, suffering, famine, illiteracy and ignorance. Peacemakers will give active support to every worthwhile movement and agency of goodwill, whether Christian or non-Christian. The work of the United Nations in all its peaceful activities must be strongly encouraged and supported. The struggle for peace calls for an all-out offensive," he added.

Report Kennedy Ready To Let Red Cross Inspectors Clear Ships Out Of Cuba

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was reported ready today to enter into special international inspection arrangements to clear ships through the U.S. naval blockade, and thus apparently speed removal of Soviet missiles from Cuba.

An agreement — which U.N. sources reported to be near — to have the International Red Cross inspect Cuba-bound ships could clear away a roadblock and hasten arrival of Soviet ships to pick up the missiles and haul them home.

Kennedy told the nation in a brisk two-minute television and radio broadcast Friday night that aerial photographs made Thursday show that the Russians were tearing down their missile bases in Cuba.

But the President declared the tight U.S. sea and air surveillance of Cuba would be maintained until satisfactory international inspection procedures are substituted or until "the threat to peace posed by these offensive weapons is gone."

At the same time, he indicated the United States was ready to consider various means of inspection. This suggested a broadening, as to means, of the requirement he had laid down for U.N.

The meeting was attended by more than 100 committeemen representing every district in the county, and Klunk said "this is the biggest crowd we've ever had at an affair like this."

In instructing committeemen and women on their duties Tuesday, Klunk emphasized the necessity of having polls staffed with "solid citizens who will take responsibility." HARTMAN SPEAKS

Eugene R. Hartman, Democratic candidate for the Assembly, said, "The people of Adams County have been doing pretty well these past eight years. There is a television in nearly every home in the county, at least one car in most families and their houses are in good repair. They have done pretty well under a Democratic administration," Hartman said. "A heavy vote is a Democratic victory—a light vote, Republican. If this group is typical of the Democratic vote on Tuesday, we'll win the election." He appealed to voters, however, to continue working "beyond Tuesday's election" to make Adams County a completely Democratic county. "We are gaining steadily in registration, and I am looking forward to making Adams a Democratic county."

Hartman said, "There are many things to be desired in our state legislation," and promised, "I know what the people of Adams County want and need." He referred to the areas of domestic relations, motor vehicle code and others as fields in which "the Democratic party is for the people."

Earl D. Warner, candidate for Congress from the 19th District, said he has been accused of seeing only the dark side of communism. "But after spending 23 days in Russia in 1958 I say that any money spent fighting communism is money invested, not spent," he declared. Warner accused the Republicans of "sliding."

PUERTO RICAN SHOT TO DEATH THIS MORNING

Martin Sieres, 23, of Central Canabana, Puerto Rico, was shot to death while a companion migrant worker was shot in the foot in an altercation about 3 o'clock this morning in the C. H. Musselman Company labor camp near Bendersville.

Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said Sieres was shot through his heart, the bullet emerging out his back. When police and the coroner arrived at the camp they found Sieres dead, with a knife in his hand, according to the coroner.

Angel Rafael Lopez, 33, was removed from the scene to the Warner Hospital in the Biglerville ambulance. He was admitted as a patient with a shot wound through his left foot.

Dr. Crist said it was not immediately known what weapon may have caused the death and injury but that from the size of the wounds he believes that it was a revolver.

PERFORM AUTOPSY

The migrant worker who is suspected of doing the shooting left the scene immediately with the weapon, whether it was a revolver, shotgun or rifle.

State police began an immediate search for the suspect.

Dr. Crist said an autopsy will be performed this morning to determine the cause of death. He added that there will be an inquest later.

Sieres' body was released to the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, by the coroner. Others at the camp said they understood Sieres was single and that this was his first trip to Adams County. He had been working in the orchards here about three weeks. The undertaker today was trying to contact the family in Puerto Rico to determine disposition of the body.

Police are searching for Raymond Martinez, described as a light colored Puerto Rican, with dark brown hair, medium build, weighing 140 pounds and about five feet six inches tall.

Eastern Kentucky Folk Disheartened, Discouraged

By BOB COOPER

PRESTONSBURG, Ky. (AP)—The people who live in the gloriously beautiful hills of eastern Kentucky are disheartened and discouraged.

Coal is their only crutch and the area's economy is sagging badly.

Large rail mines are doing fairly well, but they employ relatively few persons. The small coal industry, generally, contains three strata of humanity:

THE THREE STRATA

A few men of means who own coal-bearing land.

A larger number of men who rent the land or the coal rights on it and operate small mines. These men live lower middle class lives that sometimes are highly dangerous when troubles break out in the coal fields.

By far the largest majority of men are the mine workers. Many of them poor beyond belief.

JOBLESS GO HUNGRY

When the price of coal drops, operators are forced either to decrease wages, cut off some fringe benefits or close their mines.

The miners quit work in protest if their demands are not met.

Out of jobs, they have no income. They go hungry.

The small operators, with only meager bankrolls on which to operate, feel the pinch.

400 ON RELIEF

The land owner, with no one renting from him, suffers also. But his loss is buried in the hunger and suffering of the others.

Into such a land came the government with a test program that gives food stamps to needy families. These may be cashed at grocery stores.

About 400 persons in Floyd County are on relief rolls now.

More are expected to join the program soon.

The current walkout of workers from truck mines began weeks ago when the United Mine Workers Union withdrew welfare cards. The union said it made the move because operators failed to pay royalties that support the welfare fund. The operators say they can't make the payments.

OPERATORS' PLAN

With all truck mines closed, a stalemate developed between the operators and the mine workers. To try to break this stalemate, the operators came up with a plan.

Last week they opened a small mining operation at Garth Hollow, about 16 miles from here. They also opened a tippie at Martin to grade the coal and load it into railroad cars.

The operators announced they would pay 15 cents a ton into a fund to buy hospitalization insurance for the workers. They said there would be enough left over to form a retirement fund, too.

CODE VIOLATED

This violated the code by which miners have lived for years. There was no negotiation on the plan. The miners vetoed it.

Operators drilled coal from the mine, trucked it to the tippie and loaded it into freight cars.

Crowds of idle and angry miners packed the picket lines at the mine and the operators armed themselves in case violence broke out. State Police sent to the scene kept an uneasy peace.

The mine operation closed after two days.

The miners returned to their homes to brood. They have no money and, unless they change their standards of values, they have no hope of getting any.

NO EVIDENCE OF OTHER VEHICLE IN DAVIS DEATH

A coroner's jury Friday afternoon found that Robert L. Davis, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, York Springs R. 1, came to his death early on the evening of August 21 from accidental causes and failed to find any evidence another vehicle was involved.

The Davis boy had been driving his father's tractor home from a York Springs garage when it left a sharp curve as a rear wheel broke on a steep grade on a country road not far from the Davis home and rolled over, fracturing the boy's skull and crushing his chest. The boy died instantly.

The inquest was conducted by the Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, who had learned of reports from the victim's father that there were persons who "knew about the accident" or had been involved in it.

NO COLLISION

State Trooper Clifford Lighter of the Gettysburg substation of the state police told the jury there was no indication of a collision or that any other vehicle had been involved in the tragedy. He said all of the "tips" were run down and the results were completely negative.

The officer placed the time of the accident at 6:50 p.m. and said he had been unable to find any witnesses. Dr. Crist had the officer relate charges by the victim's father which were made at a conference a week ago at the state police barracks here as the coroner attempted to run down reports that others had been at the scene or involved in the accident.

Vance Stitzel, York Springs garage man who had repaired the tractor's started during the day, said he saw the wrecked machine after the accident and saw no indications of a collision. Harold Davis, the boy's father, recounted events of the evening of the accident and told of a pickup truck that had passed his house "like a streak" sometime before Davis learned of the accident. He made no accusations from the stand.

HAD STOPPED TRACTOR

Ronald Huff, 19, York Springs, testified he passed the Davis boy about a mile from the accident scene and said Davis had stopped his tractor and waved Huff around the tractor. Huff saw no other vehicles on that road and learned of the accident three hours later.

Mervin Masemer, Latimore Twp., said he left his home for Gettysburg at 6:20 p.m. the day of the accident, did not travel he road the boy and tractor were using and did not see them. He had a visiting state trooper in his car to bear out his story. Rumors had named both Huff and Masemer as possibly involved in the accident.

Testimony in the case was completed in 40 minutes and the jury returned its verdict by 5 p.m. while a second inquest was in progress.

Hugh C. McIlhenny was foreman of the Davis jury that included J. Harold Miller, William Timmins Jr., Harold Ecker, Frank Linn and Bernard Linn.

MAY SETTLE TRESPASS SUIT

November 13 at 10 a.m. was the Adams County court for a hearing on a proposal to settle for $8,500 an action in trespass brought as a result of the October 2 death of a Hanover R. 4 youth.

The suit is brought by Paul E. Steich, Hanover R. 4, as administrator of the estate of his son, Charles Elwood Steich, against Earl Wayne Gamble, Hanover R. 4. The younger Steich was fatally hurt October 2 when struck by an auto driven by Gamble in Mt. Pleasant, Conewago Twp.

The proposed settlement calls for payment of $807.90, expenses for the funeral, grave marker and ambulance, to the administrator of the estate under the "wrongful death" action, payment of $7,192.10 under the "wrongful death" action with one-half of that amount to go to the father, Paul E. Steich, and one-half to the mother, Doris L. Steich, and payment of $500 to the estate under the survival action.

R.C. Willing To Supervise Help Dismantling Of Cuba's Missiles

GENEVA (AP) — The International Red Cross Committee formally declared its willingness today to help supervise dismantling of Soviet rockets and bases on Cuba, if all parties agree.

A spokesman told newsmen the all-Swiss humanitarian organization is sending its former president, Paul Ruegger, to New York to meet with U.N. Acting Secretary-General U. Thant. Ruegger, former Swiss minister in Rome, will leave here early next week.

The spokesmen declined to elaborate, saying only that the task is expected of the committee "goes far beyond the traditional humanitarian activities of this institution."

"But in the superior interest of peace and of the populations affected by the blockade the committee is willing to lend its good offices to the United Nations, on the express condition that all three interested parties give their agreement."

JURORS BLAME HERSHEY MAN AT INQUEST

An Adams County coroner's jury Friday afternoon found Virgil E. Warner, 43, Hershey, at fault in an accident September 25, 20 feet south of the York County line on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. Lester D. Plumb, 56, Clearwater, Fla., died about two weeks after the accident at the Warner Hospital. He had suffered a broken leg, lacerations of the face, contusions of the chest and abrasions and contusions of the legs. The death, according to an autopsy performed at the time, was caused by lobar pneumonia, the jury was told.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, officiated at the inquest held in the courthouse. The jury found that Plumb had suffered the injuries which ultimately resulted "Plumb's car being in a collision with an auto operated by Virgil Warner into the path of Mr. Plumb's car."

OFFICER TESTIFIES

State Policeman Clifford Lighter and Elmer Dixon, 38, Jeanette, Pa., a state highways engineer, were the two principal witnesses. Warner was present at the inquest but did not testify.

Officer Lighter, who had been called to the scene of the accident, testified at the position of the cars after the accident.

The only witness "out of about 40 cars there" was Warner. Lighter said Warner told him he had been following a yellow sedan north and that the sedan had stopped in the rain suddenly without signal and Warner's car hit it. As a result Lighter said he believed that Plumb's car, wrecked nearby, had been headed north in front of Warner's auto.

Lighter said Plumb's car had been traveling south followed by Dixon. Plumb and Dixon told the officer that Warner's northbound auto had cut across the highway into the path of the southbound Plumb car and Plumb's auto had thus struck the Warner auto. The officer described the damage to the two cars involved.

JESSE SNYDER IS GIVEN 50 YEAR BADGE

Jesse E. Snyder, Baltimore St., a past department commander of the Sons of Union Veterans, was presented with a badge signifying 50 years membership in the order at the Department Commanders' Night program held Friday evening at the GAR home, E. Middle St.

He was one of three "50 year or more" members who were praised for their long service. The others were Herman L. Nichols, York, a 64-year member, and Joseph I. Weaver, New Oxford, a 54-year member, both of whom had received the 50-year medal previously.

Pennsylvania Department Commander Rev. Richard O. Partington, Philadelphia, was the principal speaker at the meeting held for SUV and Auxiliary members from Gettysburg, York, Reading, Lancaster and New Oxford.

He said, "Americans have stopped building monuments to their heroic dead. A secretary of interior of the United States has announced that Washington has too many monuments and that he will seek to reduce the number."

CALLLED TRAGIC

"It would be a tragic thing if America has lost interest in its past. Of all the animals, man is the only one who has kept alive the memory of his past by erecting monuments to recall to the mind of youth down through the ages the heroic qualities and the heroic actions of the past. The Athenian father would take his son to view the memorials to Plato and Socrates and all the greats of Athens to tell him of the

Six Teachers Are Killed When Vehicle Is Crushed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The death of six Akron school teachers whose car was virtually flattened in a collision with a big truck was called a tragic loss today by Martin Essex, superintendent of Akron schools.

Five of the women killed in the grinding crash on the Willow Freeway south of Cleveland taught at David Hill Elementary School. They had attended sessions of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association here.

The victims were identified as Mrs. Lois C. Lewis, 41; Mrs. Mildred Whitely, 62; Mrs. Catherine Williamson, 52; Mrs. C. Edith Miller, 67; Mrs. Julia Ann Johnson, 57; and Mrs. Frances T. Slocum, 57, owner of the car.

Mrs. Johnson taught at Voris Elementary School.

The tragedy wiped out nearly one-fifth of the teaching staff of 27 at David Hill. Except for Mrs. Slocum, who was in her second year of teaching, all were veterans. Mrs. Johnson had taught for 33 years, Mrs. Whitely 24 years. Justin J. Gedraitis, 35, of Cleveland, driver of the truck, suffered head injuries but his condition was reported as good in the prison ward at Metropolitan Hospital. No charges were filed.

LIBRARY MAY OPEN $100,000 FINANCE DRIVE

The Adams County Public Library board Friday night took further steps towards a campaign to raise $100,000 or more next spring and secure a matching amount from the federal government in order to enlarge and improve the present library building.

Final details of the program were not worked out, but if federal matching funds can be secured and if a capital gains campaign next spring brings in the funds required, then the library will proceed with planned enlargement which will include construction of a "children's room" east of the present library; construction of a large stack room connecting with the present stack room; construction of a new garage large enough to house the two bookmobiles and construction and remodeling of present portions of the structure to provide enlarged reading room and work space.

DO P' ER WORK

Much of Friday evening's meeting of the board at the library building on E. High St. was devoted to the passage of necessary resolutions to permit presentation to the federal Housing and Home Financing Agency of the library's bid for federal matching funds for the construction.

C. P. Keefer, of the committee handling the application, said it is hoped that all papers, the architect's plans, contract with the architect, the board's formal resolution authorizing the work, can be taken to the offices of the federal agency in Washington "within a week."

Keefer said he had previously met with the official in Washington who will handle the application.

WCD SPEAKER TELLS OF SURE WAY TO PEACE

"Jesus may call His peacemakers the sons of God but the world is more likely to brand them sentimentalists, dreamers or even Communists," declared Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer, professor of theology at the Lutheran Seminary, declare in his sermon at the World Community Day service in the Methodist Church Friday evening. His topic was: "Waging Peace."

"The Christian peacemaker is more interested in the long-term strategy for peace than short-term safeguards against war," he continued. "The real tragedy of our time is that though everybody seems to detest and speak against war, we are all caught in a vicious pattern we cannot seem to break. We have been brought to a sense of insecurity and helplessness in our search for security through military might. The great temptation is to allow the circumstances of our time, the gravity of world tension, to keep us from taking seriously Jesus' beatitude 'blessed are the peacemakers.' We acquiesce into a state of passiveness and inaction. We despair."

"PEACE IS MADE" "Peace in the world, peace among groups, does not 'just come,' peace is 'made.' It is made by lovers and makers of peace. We must rid ourselves of the fatuous idea that preparation for war is the best preparation for peace. Standby armies, standby battle-ships and standby bombs may hold off war, but they do not make peace."

"The Apostle Paul urged Christians to 'have their feet shod with the equipment of the gospel of peace.' With the intensity with which men and nations are prepared to wage war, Christians are called to battle for peace. We dare not despair in the struggle for reconciliation. It calls for a long-term strategy . . . the strategy of reconciliation between peoples calls for understanding and to put to flight ignorance and gross misunderstanding. It demands the cleansing of motive and purification of intentions. It needs the true sense of identification, whereby men may truly enter into other men's sufferings, hardships and honest aspirations."

"Peacemakers will enter into the active and selfless ministry of ridding mankind of the scourge of poverty, suffering, famine, illiteracy and ignorance. Peacemakers will give active support to every worthwhile movement and agency of goodwill, whether Christian or non-Christian. The work of the United Nations in all its peaceful activities must be strongly encouraged and supported. The struggle for peace calls for an all-out offensive," he added.

Report Kennedy Ready To Let Red Cross Inspectors Clear Ships Out Of Cuba

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was reported ready today to enter into special international inspection arrangements to clear ships through the U.S. naval blockade, and thus apparently speed removal of Soviet missiles from Cuba.

An agreement — which U.N. sources reported to be near — to have the International Red Cross inspect Cuba-bound ships could clear away a roadblock and hasten arrival of Soviet ships to pick up the missiles and haul them home.

Kennedy told the nation in a brisk two-minute television and radio broadcast Friday night that aerial photographs made Thursday show that the Russians were tearing down their missile bases in Cuba.

KEEP SURVEILLANCE

But the President declared the tight U.S. sea and air surveillance of Cuba would be maintained until satisfactory international inspection procedures are substituted or until "the threat to peace posed by these offensive weapons is gone."

At the same time, he indicated the United States was ready to consider various means of inspection. This suggested a broadening, as to means, of the requirement he had laid down for U.N.

County Officer Gets Pilot Wings

Lieut. William T. Tilton, son of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Charles B. Tilton, of Bendersville, has been awarded United States Air Force pilot wings following his graduation from pilot training at Reese AFB, Tex.

Lieut. Tilton, who holds a B.A. degree from Principia College, Elmhurst, Ill., flew T-37 and T-33 jet trainers during the year-long flying training course. He also received special academic and military training.

He is being assigned to England AFB, La., to fly KB-50 aircraft.

LARGE CROWD AT DEMOCRAT RALLY FRIDAY

A crowd that overflowed the Adams County courtroom and into the halls and left not even standing room Friday night heard County Chairman Fred G. Klunk accuse the Republican party of "buying this election." He charged that "they are spending $100 for each one dollar we are spending."

The meeting was attended by more than 100 committeemen representing every district in the county, and Klunk said "this is the biggest crowd we've ever had at an affair like this."

In instructing committeemen and women on their duties Tuesday, Klunk emphasized the necessity of having polls staffed with "solid citizens who will take responsibility." He ordered, "I want at least one good solid Democrat in the polling places while the vote is being counted." He called upon "every person in this room to help make a Democratic victory a reality."

HARTMAN SPEAKS

Eugene R. Hartman, Democratic candidate for the Assembly, said, "The people of Adams County have been doing pretty well these past eight years. There is a television in nearly every home in the county, at least one car in most families and their houses are in good repair. They have done pretty well under a Democratic administration." Hartman said, "A heavy vote is a Democratic victory—a light vote, Republican. If this group is typical of the Democratic vote on Tuesday, we'll win the election." He appealed to voters, however, to continue working "beyond Tuesday's election" to make Adams County a completely Democratic county. "We are gaining steadily in registration, and I am looking forward to making Adams a Democratic county."

Hartman said, "There are many things to be desired in our state legislation," and promised, "I know what the people of Adams County want and need." He referred to the areas of domestic relations, motor vehicle code and others as fields in which "the Democratic party is for the people."

Earl D. Warner, candidate for Congress from the 19th District, said he has been accused of seeing only the dark side of communism. "But after spending 23 days in Russia in 1958 I say that any money spent fighting communism is money invested, not spent," he declared. Warner accused the Republicans of "sliding."

PUERTO RICAN SHOT TO DEATH THIS MORNING

Martin Siales, 23, of Central Canabana, Puerto Rico, was shot to death while a companion migrant worker was shot in the foot in an altercation about 3 o'clock this morning in the C. H. Musselman Company labor camp near Bendersville.

Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said Siales was shot through his heart, the bullet emerging out his back. When police and the coroner arrived at the camp they found Siales dead, with a knife in his hand, according to the coroner.

Angel Rafael Lopez, 33, was removed from the scene to the Warner Hospital in the Biglerville ambulance. He was admitted as a patient with a shot wound through his left foot.

Dr. Crist said it was not immediately known what weapon may have caused the death and injury but that from the size of the wounds he believes that it was a revolver.

PERFORM AUTOPSY

The migrant worker who is suspected of doing the shooting left the scene immediately with the weapon, whether it was a revolver, shotgun or rifle.

State police began an immediate search for the suspect.

Dr. Crist said an autopsy will be performed this morning to determine the cause of death. He added that there will be an inquest later.

Siales' body was released to the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, by the coroner. Others at the camp said they understood Siales was single and that this was his first trip to Adams County. He had been working in the orchards here about three weeks. The undertaker today was trying to contact the family in Puerto Rico to determine disposition of the body.

Police are searching for Raymond Martinez, described as a light colored Puerto Rican, with dark brown hair, medium build, weighing 140 pounds and about five feet six inches tall.

Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller Sr., who filed the charges before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, said Sablich was driving north at 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone when his car struck the concrete bridge over Rock Creek near radio station WGET.

Neither Sablich nor a hitchhiker who was a passenger in the car was injured. The bridge was damaged as was the fender and right side of Sablich's car.

Sablich pleaded guilty to reckless driving and speeding at 60 miles per hour before Justice of the Peace Whitman and paid $40 fines and costs.

EISENHOWER COMPLETES '62 CAMPAIGNING

By GEORGE BOWEN
BALTIMORE (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, former president, rested his case today for the election of Republicans to Congress next Tuesday on the note that the Kennedy administration is an exclusive clique of the Democratic party.

Eisenhower called it "a faction that seeks constantly to extend and strengthen its control over all the nation."

He said Republicans are striving to restore a climate of people "using government as their servant and never agreeing that it shall by dynamic."

Eisenhower finished his public stumpeting Friday night in Maryland where he started it Sept. 7. He appeared in 22 states, to point out, he said, that "Republicans stress enterprise as the key to greatness."

CHEERED BY 3,000

"Our opponents, on the other hand, stress the pork barrel of federal aid and subsidy, a heritage of debt for those who follow us," he added.

Eisenhower's last campaign talk in a steel mill suburb of Baltimore drew its loudest applause from 3,000 standing up in an armory when he attacked the Kennedy administration.

"This faction promised in 1960 freely and profusely that America would enjoy immense increases in prosperity, in prestige, in power," he said.

"Not one promise has been fulfilled. Instead, the record is a dreary tale of standing still, except in the spending of money and in the growth of our debt."

BACK CUBAN CRISIS
At the outset, Eisenhower reiterated that Americans, without regard to their political affiliation, must stand behind President Kennedy in the Cuban crisis which the former president said still is unresolved.

The case is different in domestic affairs, Eisenhower said. "I hope millions will join me in trying to produce a flood of Republican votes," he said, addressing himself to "Americans—Republicans, Democrats or Independents."

Transcontinental Walker In Town

Patrick Thienef, of San Diego, who says he is 78 years old, and who claims that he has walked across the country, east to west, 18 times, and north to south, 12 times, arrived in Gettysburg Thursday afternoon on what he says is another trip to arouse interest in retarded and handicapped children.

Thienef is accompanied by a public relations man who says that he follows the walker in a car. The two are enroute to Washington where, they claim, they are to meet President Kennedy, then to New York where they say they have a letter of introduction to Mayor Robert Wagner.

Thienef says he has traveled 2,957 miles in 42 days, that he has walked 685 hours, rested 323 hours and averaged 4.3 miles per hour on the current trip. He showed clippings taken from The Gettysburg Times reporting his visit here in 1957.

DEAN SPEAKS TO LOCAL DAR ON CIVIL WAR

Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, dean of Gettysburg College and a member of county, state and national historical societies, told members of the DAR Friday evening that the Civil War was a "grueling 4-year period without glamor."

The group met at the home of L. S. Long, Longview, to hear Dr. Glatfelter describe "Adams County in the Civil War."

He said the county had a population of 28,000 people, of whom 2,000 lived in Gettysburg. The 1860 census showed that 50 people were employed in manufacturing carriages. Other industries included flour mills and leather shops.

The county had three weekly newspapers, two Republican and one Democratic. The Democratic paper, The Compiler, opposed the election of Lincoln and none of the newspapers urged the declaration of war. The women of the county supplied caps, sweaters and bandages for soldiers. The county or private charities took care of the families of local volunteers, and Adams county was one of the first to feel the effects of a depression.

CURIOUS ARRIVE
He said that, within hours after the guns ceased firing during the battle, people from nearby communities came to see the county and witness the ravages of war.

Mrs. Clarence C. Smith, regent, reported on the state conference held in October in Philadelphia. Christmas gifts for students at the DAR school in Tammessee, S.C., were given to Mrs. Paul Knox, chairman, to be sent to the school, which is owned and supported by national chapters. Students are children whose families live in the mountains beyond the reach of public schools.

The next meeting will be held January 4.

THANT WORKS ON PLANS FOR R.C. INSPECTION

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Acting Secretary-General U Thant seeks Red Cross approval this weekend of a Soviet plan to let the international mercy group inspect Cuba-bound Russian ships for arms.

The United States and the Soviet Union were reported near agreement on the plan, which is aimed at lifting the U.S. naval arms blockade of Cuba. But the Red Cross has not yet given its final consent to assume the delicate role.

President Kennedy said in a broadcast Friday night that the Red Cross would be an appropriate agency for the task under which inspectors reportedly would be stationed on ships chartered by the Red Cross or the U.N.

MEETING SUNDAY

Informed sources said the Red Cross would send a high official here today or Sunday to go over the details with Thant. The international agency is said to have given tentative approval on grounds that as a humanitarian organization it could inspect incoming ships to make sure that needed food and medicines were getting through to Cuba.

The United States also had considered the possibility of asking the Red Cross to check Soviet ships leaving Cuba to make sure the missiles were being shipped out as promised by Premier Khrushchev. But this idea apparently was dropped.

A spokesman for Thant said the secretary-general had been informed that it would take about 10 days for Soviet ships to arrive in Cuba to pick up the dismantled missiles and ship them back to the Soviet Union.

U. S. STANDS FIRM

The United States has said it still insists on international inspection to make sure the missiles have been pulled out. This would seem to require on-the-spot checks since that is the only certain method.

U.S. circles here appeared confident, however, that an overall solution to the crisis would be reached. They were said to be hopeful that First Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, Khrushchev's ace troubleshooter who arrived in Havana Friday night, can persuade Prime Minister Fidel Castro to relax his adamant stand against inspection on Cuban soil to verify withdrawal of the rocket.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson told newsmen after conferring again with Thant that the United States was making progress in negotiations with the Soviet Union to resolve the crisis.

War, Tension Spreading To Many Points

By SID MOODY

Spin a globe. Stop it and put your finger down, anywhere. It will not be far from crisis. Potential and actual danger areas are stacked around the world like dominoes. They are so interrelated that any one of them could send the rest toppling into World War III.

Communist pressure is being applied in Berlin, Laos, South Viet Nam, India, Cuba. Actual fighting is going on in India and South Viet Nam. The United Nations enforces an uneasy peace in the Congo province of Katanga. The Algerian fighting has ended only to be replaced by an unsettling leftward drift by the new nation.

COLD WAR WARMS

East and West stare down gun-sights at each other in Quemoy and Matsu and over the cease-fire line in Korea. What American hasn't watched the vapor trails of SAC bombers curving across the sky? In Italy, Turkey, Montana, California, in submerged submarines somewhere off northern Europe, in the Ural nuclear missiles stand at the ready. For what?

No one can say if these armaments will ever be fired in anger. What's more ominous is that no one can say which of the world's trouble points could set them off. It's the brushfire character of current developments that keeps the cold war warm.

The United States evidently gambled and won in Cuba. Does this mean Russia will gamble to try and make up in Berlin?

Red China, which takes a harder line on war than Russia, has battled into India, obviously embarrassing the Soviet Union which was trying to make the best of the world's two most populous nations. Conceivably China is reacting in protest of the Russian withdrawal over Cuba. Does this mean Russia will have to prove its manhood to its number one ally by warming up a crisis in Laos or giving the Chinese a free hand in South Viet Nam?

VOLATILE SITUATIONS

Political unknowns of the Russian-Chinese relationship help make the world situation so volatile. China, badly in need of friends in the Communist entourage, sent defiant assurances of support to Castro during the Cuban crisis. In Cuba as in India does this mean Russia will have to follow against its will the more belligerent Chinese path or risk losing its ally?

And how much longer can Moscow put off an East German peace treaty after so many promises to that wobbly country? And such a treaty would inevitably reheat the chronic Berlin crisis.

Russia held China in check by managing the Communist infiltration in Laos. If Red China can get control of the South Viet Nam fighting, where the U. S. has already committed thousands of soldiers, the situation could quickly expand into another Korea. Any of these areas could provide the match for World War III. Even a palace revolt in the comic-opera sheikdom of Yemen caused an uneasy stir.

For years the United States has concentrated on threading a network of defenses around the globe to bring immediate pressure to bear on any threatening bulges in the Iron Curtain. This has meant destroyers in the Caribbean, helicopters in South Viet Nam, Marines in Lebanon and air transports in India.

If war has become global, so, in a flammable world, has keeping the peace.

Crash Claims In Frederick Court

A jury of eight men and four women was called in Circuit Court, Frederick, Friday to hear claims and counterclaims filed after an accident on U.S. 15 two years ago. Chief Judge Patrick M. Schnauffer presided.

Atty. Albert Kane, who is a resource development specialist for the Federal Bureau of Indian Affairs, said the accident occurred when an auto driven by George A. Wagaman, Emmitsburg, attempted to make a left turn in front of his vehicle.

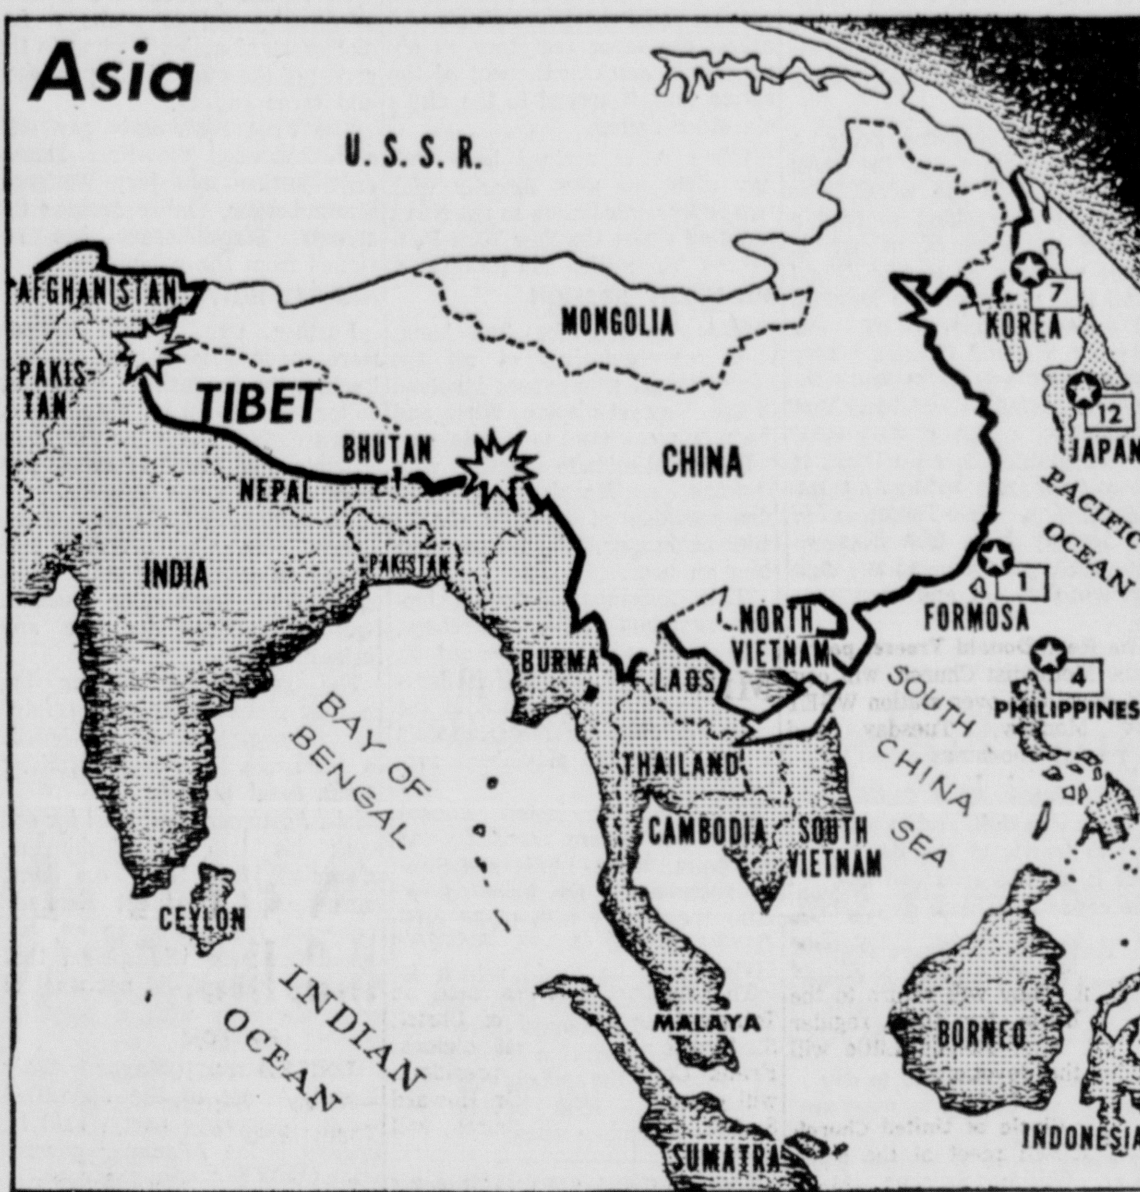

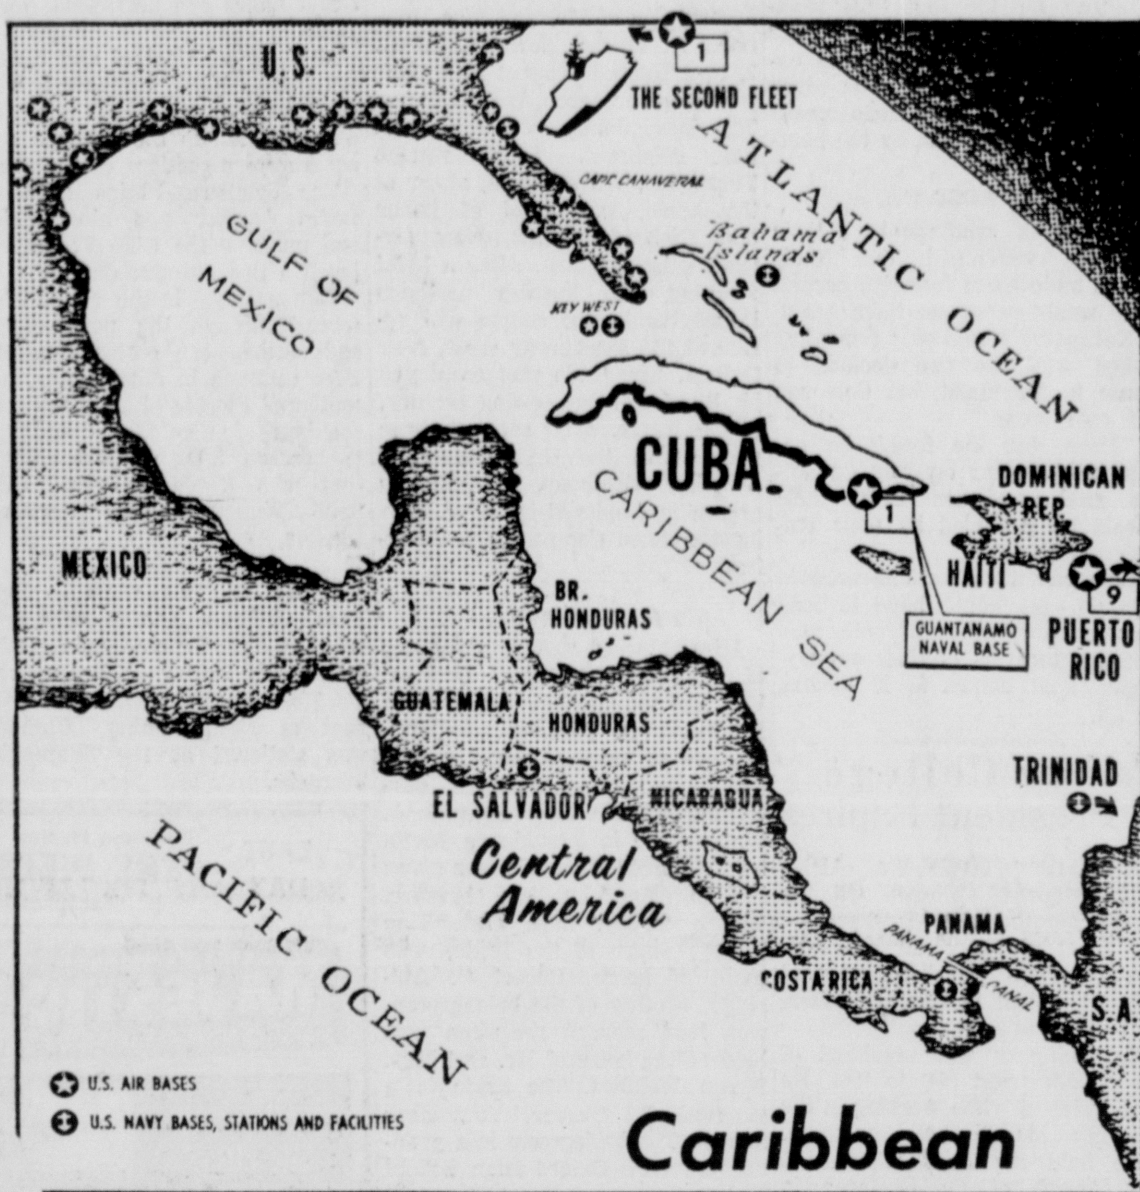

Kane said he was driving north on U.S. 15 approaching the intersection of Rt. 76 at about 35 mph. He said he swerved hard to the left into the southbound lane of traffic to go around the Wagaman car.

Kane said he suffered pains and bruises but no permanent injury. His wife, Kate, a passenger in the vehicle, said she suffered multiple bruises but no permanent injury. Their 20-year-old daughter was not injured.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The wife of a Chinese schoolteacher gave birth to a boy weighing 17.6 pounds, according to local newspapers.

They identified the mother as Mrs. Chien Ching-ping, whose husband teaches in a primary school at Chuohsi, a village near the east Formosa coastal town of Hualien. The report said mother and child were doing well.

Today's Talk

EVERYDAY RELIGION

I have always felt that the religious belief of others is as sacred a thing to them as my religion is to me.

The fact is that we were all born with some sort of religious feeling. Study the history of every country, and every race, and you will find religion as the base of all their life. No individual or nation can endure long without it. There always comes a time when this prop to the life of a nation, and to a human being, is essential.

Godless nations have always crumbled, and godless men have always come to sorrow and despair.

In speaking of religion I specify no creeds or sects — simply the religion of love, of beauty, of unselfishness. Behind such a religion is to be found the only true happiness.

The eternal hunger of the heart must be appeased in some manner. Since human life began, men have tried every material means to satisfy this longing — finally falling back upon the mysterious call of the Unseen. The warrior of the wilds dreamed of his happy hunting grounds.

Give a man everything — and he may, in reality have nothing. Much there is that masquerades in the name of religion, but true religion is so real and live, to the one who owns it, that all else is dominated by it. It is the one background that serves and supports in all times of test or stress.

The strongest characters are the religious ones. Religion is what does most to make them strong.

Love for a Supreme Being, a Father, a Helper, is the most natural thing in the world. Who else could understand so frail a creature as each of us? In silence we may go to this Friend of All and unburden the longings and disappointments of our everyday life and become hourly strengthened and refreshed.

Religion is the silent hand that understands, which presses ours, when everything is most dark. It is the substance behind all the hope that is most precious to each of us. It is the everyday light which guides us to our destined ends. It is garmented with love.

CUSTOMER AND CLERK

The clerk was dull, and so was he, but in traffic of the day Effect is all the eyes can see, The cause is seldom on display.

"The customer is always right!" So runs the false belief of trade. The clerk must always be polite Or else the wages won't be paid.

It is presumed from day to day That all we chance to meet are well, That every heart is blithely gay And no one has a grief to tell.

The man in bitterness complained, "Perhaps my speech was short," said he, "But I was ill, my body pained And clerks more patient ought to be."

The merchant said: "They come to work With aches and hurts we cannot know, Yours was a headache, but the clerk Buried her babe a week ago."

SEC. OF LABOR SEEKS TO END PAPER STRIKE

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz met separately with management and union representatives into the early hours today in an attempt to end a strike that has shut down the nation's largest circulation newspaper, the New York Daily News.

No progress was reported immediately as the strike entered its third day. The New York morning paper, with a daily circulation in excess of two million, suspended publication Friday night. It had published a 16-page edition Friday morning on the presses of the afternoon Journal-American.

About 1,100 editorial and business employees of the News, members of the American Newspaper Guild, struck the newspaper at midnight Wednesday. The contract dispute's main issue revolves around wages.

4,000 ARE IDLED

F. M. Flynn, president and publisher of the News, in announcing the suspension of publication because of the strike, said it meant laying off about 4,000 nonstriking employees.

Less than an hour after his announcement, Wirtz said in Washington he was flying to New York to take a personal hand in the negotiations.

Reliable sources in Washington reported that the White House had asked the labor secretary to try to gain a quick settlement of the strike, lest it spread to the city's six other dailies.

When Wirtz arrived here Friday night, he went directly with two federal mediators to the News building where the New York Publishers Association has its offices.

MIDNIGHT SESSION

After meeting for two hours with representatives of all the metropolitan newspapers involved in the contract dispute, Wirtz and the mediators went to a hotel and held a post midnight meeting with Thomas J. Murphy, executive vice president of the guild and its chief negotiator. That lasted more than an hour.

Wirtz accompanied by his deputy assistant labor secretary, John W. Leslie, and William E. Simkin, Federal Mediation Service director, then returned to the News building for a resumption of talks with the publishers' representatives.

That meeting lasted almost three hours before recessing. At that point, Wirtz, Leslie and Simkin returned to the hotel to resume their talks with Guild officials.

Wirtz said he would return to the publishers' office after that. Simkin told newsmen there was a real possibility of a joint meeting between the publishers and Guild officials soon, but he declined to speculate when.

Macing Charged For Township Workers

HARRISBURG (AP) — A complaint by two former employees of Upper Darby Township that they were maced by township officials has been turned over to the Delaware County district attorney by the state Justice Department.

Atty. Gen. David Stahl said Friday he was mailing a copy of the complaint to Dist. Atty. Jacques H. Fox.

A copy of the complaint was given to newsmen here but it contained no specific instances or dates of alleged macing. It was signed by Albert S. Medaglia and William Millison, both of Upper Darby.

Macing is the forcing of contributions from government employees by political parties.

ADENAUER IS THREATENED BY ULTIMATUM

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's delicately balanced coalition government appeared threatened today, following an ultimatum from the Free Democratic party for a free-saving ouster of two government officials in the Der Spiegel magazine treason case.

The minority party of Adenauer's coalition gave the chancellor three days to fire the No. 2 men in the justice and defense ministries, and to make a full disclosure of action leading to the arrest of the magazine's publisher and three editors.

The Free Democrats say officials bypassed the Free Democrat justice minister, Wolfgang Stammberger, in ordering the arrests. Stammberger has resigned from the cabinet.

Further Der Spiegel arrests were made Friday night. Detlev Becker, the magazine's managing editor, was taken on suspicion of high treason. The other magazine officials had been arrested last week on the same grounds.

An unidentified German army colonel was also arrested late Friday on suspicion of state treason. Federal Prosecutor Joachim Loesdau declined to give any further details.

The government alleges the popular picture magazine printed military secrets in articles hostile to German Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss.

Adenauer postponed for one week his trip to Washington, scheduled for Nov. 6. Some sources said President Kennedy requested the postponement, but speculation was widespread that Adenauer himself did not want to leave Germany with a potential scandal brewing.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, leader of the opposition Social Democratic party, said he doubted if the Adenauer government would fall over the case.

CREE INDIANS ARE SERVING AS MD. GUIDES

EASTON, Md. (AP) — Better brush up on your Cree if you plan to do any goose shooting on Maryland's eastern shore this winter.

It's a long way from the Cree village of Rupert House in the middle of Canada's wild Hudson Bay country to Maryland, but two Cree Indians made the trip this week to take jobs as hunting guides in Talbot County.

James Frank, 39, and Walter Katapatus, 33—both speak nothing but Cree and a few snatches of English—made the 1,300-mile trip in five days via bush pilots, a logging train and finally a jet airliner from Toronto.

USE BUSH PLANE

They had planned to paddle a canoe the 100-odd miles to Noosenee One, whence they took a logging train but the rivers already had frozen over, forcing them to use a bush plane.

They were met at Baltimore's Friendship International Airport by their employer, Francis J. Cole, a Talbot County hunting guide and dog trainer.

Cole hunts the Hudson Bay area when he is not guiding waterfowl hunters in Maryland. He had been trying, for several years, to get the Indians to help him during goose hunting season.

Both men left their wives and children for the first time when they came to Maryland. On their hunting trips in Canada, the wives cook the children clean geese and other game shot by the hunters.

"LIKE THE FOOD"

Katapatus who speaks a little English explained that their wives bade them farewell, certain they would never see them again.

Katapatus would only grin when asked why the two decided to come to Maryland, but Cole has his own ideas.

"They like the food," he explained, pointing out that Canadian guides always insist their meals be provided by their employers.

Cole has it easy. If he were in Canada he would have to feed the entire families of both men for the duration of their employment. That comes to 17 mouths in all.

Former College President Expires

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Elizabethtown College will be closed Monday out of respect to Dr. A. C. Baugher, 69, its president emeritus who died Friday of a heart attack in Lancaster General Hospital.

Dr. Baugher was president of the college from 1941 to 1961. He was stricken while working in the garden at his Elizabethtown home.

He held the highest office of the Church of the Brethren in 1956-1957 — that of moderator. Funeral services will be Monday at the Church of the Brethren here.

Bolts Give Hanover Stiff Battle Before Losing 14-0 In Last Game Of Season

It took the Hanover Nighthawks everything they had to annex their eighth win in nine outings as they outlasted a spirited and hard fighting Littlestown High School 14-0 Friday evening on the Bolts' field before an overflow crowd of 2,100 fans.

A Hanover team which has scored almost at will throughout the season was held to but two second period TDs. The Nighthawks' fast moving back rolled up plenty of yards, but when it came down to the goal line, they were no match for Bill Heyser's defensive wall. Despite their defeat, the Thunderbolts played one of their outstanding games of the season and gave the fans plenty to talk about. Senior Frank Bacon, one of the area's top scholastic guards, time and again detached Hawk plays and nailed them before they could get started. Ted Bortner and Dick Motter turned in an outstanding rushing performance. Center Jeff Breighner, despite being hampered by a slight leg injury, was one of the main figures which gave quarterback Bill Woodward his pass protection.

Hanover controlled the ball throughout the first period, taking the kickoff and driving to the Littlestown 32 before losing the pigskin on downs. The Bolts moved the ball out to the midfield stripe before being forced to punt. The Hawks then carried the ball five plays to the Littlestown 19 including a 38-yard jaunt by Parry Spahr in the period ended.

Two minutes and 12 seconds into the second stanza, Hanover crossed the goal line for its first score. Bob Shue and Spahr tottered the ball to the one where half-back Bill Hoffacker crashed over. Tackle Greg Pratt booted the placement.

Again the Bolts moved to midfield and again had to punt. This time Hanover took over on its own 41 and marched 59 yards for the final score with 30 seconds remaining in the half. The clincher was a 17-yard aerial from quarterback Jeff Rebert to Hoffacker. Pratt's placement made it 14-0 at the half and the eventual final score.

Bill Woodward starting throwing for the Bolts in the second half and consequently moved to the Hanover 30 in the third period. The drive stopped there when end John Bowman crashed through twice to hit Woodward and Ed Koontz for 19 yards lost on two plays.

STOPPED BY INTERCEPTION

Late in the fourth period, Littlestown again showed signs of heading for pay dirt as it advanced to the Hawks' 29 for a first down. Following an incomplete pass, Spahr intercepted Woodward's second aerial attempt on the visitors' five to end the Bolts' final scoring threat. Just as the game ended, Hanover looked as if it might score again when Rebert completed a 41-yard pass to Spahr who stepped out of bounds on the Littlestown four as the gun sounded.

For Bill Heyser, who completed his first season as head coach at Littlestown, it was a season of ups and down and a new system. The Bolts finished the 1962 campaign with a 4-5 record.

Seniors who played their final game under the blue and gold colors of Littlestown and who were introduced just prior to the game included: Bill Woodward, Dwight Strevig, Ted Bortner, Buddy Ecker, Dick Motter, Jeff Breighner, Frank Basehoar, Tom Appller, Phil Close, Fred Snyder, Dale Bair and Doug Gitt.

NAMED COCAPTAINS
Earlier in the day the Littlestown squad elected Frank Basehoar and Jeff Breighner as the honorary cocaptains for the 1962 season.

Betsy Rawls May Upset Mrs. Wright

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Betsy Rawls, who once won 10 tournaments in a year but hasn't been going to the payoff window very much this year, was in a position today to prevent Mickey Wright from breaking the record they share.

Miss Rawls shot a 4-under-par 68 Friday for the first round lead in the $7,500 54-hole Civitan Open while Miss Wright, the favorite, was seven strokes away at 75.

Miss Wright has won 10 tournaments this year and could get a record if she took first money here. Miss Rawls, who has won only once this year, was in the 60's for the first time since spring.

In a tie for second were Muriel Lindstrom and Ruth Jensen, each with a 70, while amateur Polly Riley and Marilann Smith were tied at 71.

CELTICS TAKE LEAGUE LEAD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Things are beginning to look a little more normal in the National Basketball Association.

For the first time in the season the Boston Celtics are in sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division. For the five-time NBA champions to be anywhere else is something like the New York Yankees resting in fifth place in the American Baseball League.

The Celtics took over the top spot Friday night by virtue of a 107-97 victory over the Chicago Zephyrs. It was their fifth victory in six starts and pulled them out of a first place tie with Syracuse, which was idle.

In Friday night's other game Al Attles and Guy Rodgers led a fourth quarter drive that carried the San Francisco Warriors over the New York Knickerbockers 143-121. It was the seventh straight loss for New York.

CARRY BACK FAVORED IN $75,000 RACE

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)—Carry Back, an equine millionaire, was favored to win the $75,000 added Trenton Handicap for the second straight year at Garden State Park today.

The 4-year-old colt, to be ridden by Johnny Rotz, was assigned 129 pounds, conceding from 11 to 22 pounds in the 21st renewal of the race over 1 1/4 miles.

A 12-hour horse put the gross purse at $89,800, with $58,370 to the winner.

Carry Back was seeking to become the first ever to win the Trenton twice. He still is in contention for horse of the year honors as he moved toward the end of his racing career although he was out of the money in last week's Man O'war at Belmont.

Crozier, Guadalupe, Mongo and Misty Day are among the entries.

Cicada, like Carry Back out of the money in her last start, nevertheless was the favorite in the $50,000-added Ladies Handicap at Aqueduct in New York, the oldest handicap in the country for fillies and mares.

Cicada was assigned 122 pounds in this 92nd running of the Ladies and was to be ridden by Willie Shoemaker. Shirley Jones was two-weighted at 125 and second choice in the morning line.

A field of 10 for the 1.5-mile event made the gross $57,300, with the winner getting $37,245.

Mike DeJohn Seeks Third Win Tonight

He is expected to weigh around 199, Daniels 189.

The Brooklyn heavy lost to Cassius Clay this year after suffering a badly cut eye. It was his only loss in 17 fights, 7 of which were knockouts.

The Miamian has knocked out 28 of his 53 opponents in winning 43 fights.

BEARS EYEING REVENGE OVER LOOP LEADERS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It figures, of course, that someone is going to beat the Green Bay Packers this season. After all, the National Football League hasn't had an undefeated team since the Chicago Bears of 1942.

It is, however, something like putting the bell on the cat.

The Chicago Bears (4-3) are going to make the big try Sunday. They're full of high hopes, have a revenge motive going for them and will be playing at home.

But it'll be double tough. One reason is Paul Hornung, the Packers' all-purpose back who has led the league in scoring for the past three seasons. He's missed almost three full games with a knee injury, but gives himself a 50-50 chance to return Sunday. Even missing their ace, the Packers kept right on rolling to their present 7-0 record.

Then, too, the defending league champions smothered the Bears 49-0 in their first meeting this season, which accounts for the Chicago revenge motive. It's heightened by the fact the Bears haven't beaten their old rivals since the 1960 opener.

While Green Bay is threatening to run off and hide from the rest of the Western Division, the East developed into a wide-open affair last week when the New York Giants knocked off previously unbeaten Washington 49-34 on Y. A. Tittle's seven touchdown passes.

At least five teams now have some hopes of gaining the Eastern title even St. Louis (2-4) and Pittsburgh (3-4).

St. Louis, however, has shown itself to be vulnerable to a passing attack and goes against the Giants (5-2).

The clash between Dallas (3-3-1) and Washington (4-1-2) could be the key to the East. A Dallas victory opens it up even more. It has to be a pick'em affair, since the two teams scrambled to a 25-35 tie in their first game this season.

Cleveland (4-3), in third place in the East goes against Philadelphia's disappointing Eagles (1-6). Philadelphia's only victory came at the expense of the Browns.

Detroit (5-2), the No. 2 team in the West, takes its stern defense to Los Angeles (1-6), while Minnesota (2-5) visits Pittsburgh and Baltimore (3-4) goes to San Francisco (3-4) in other games.

TWO TIED FOR $20,000 OPEN

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The $20,000 Beaumont Invitational Golf Tournament had co-leaders again today, but they were different from the two who set the pace in the first round.

Host pro Bert Weaver and Lionel Hebert took over first place Friday by firing a 5-under-par 67 and a 69, respectively, tying them at 140 for 36 holes.

Bob Gajda of Detroit and Ben Winger of Odessa, Tex., who led the first round with 67s, soared to 75 and 77.

A fierce west wind didn't bother Weaver and Hebert but Winger flamed it for his poor score. And the wind did cause scores to skyrocket for most of the field.

Weaver said he was putting well as he toured the 6,656-yard Tyrell Park municipal course. He had birdies on five holes, sinking putts up to 18 feet.

The field was cut to 62 players for the final 36 holes and 151 were required to make the cutoff.

No top player was eliminated although Doug Sanders, the co-favorite along with Hebert, was four strokes off the pace.

HERO'S WELCOME

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—Hundreds of excited Nigerians gave Dick Tiger a hero's welcome when he returned home by plane Friday night.

It was the first time Tiger had been on Nigerian soil since out-pointing Gene Fullmer to win the World Boxing Association version of the world middleweight title in San Francisco last month.

The City Council will honor Tiger at a civic reception today.

Bullet X-Country Teams Wins Sixth

The Gettysburg College cross-country team extended its winning streak to six in a row as the Bullets outran Susquehanna University 15-45 Friday afternoon on the Gettysburg Country Club course.

Jim Lombardi got back on the winning trail as he capped his seventh first place of the season by crossing the finish line in 21:47.6, just 7.4 seconds off his own course and school record set earlier this season.

Ed Salmon, who has been pushing Lombardi all year, became ill during the meet but managed to come in fifth to give the Bullets their first shutout of the year. Gettysburg took the first five place while Pete Johnson paced the losers with a sixth place time of 23:49.

Coach Hal Glad's harriers, 7-1 on the season, will tangle with a strong Elizabethton team Wednesday on the Blue Jays' course.

The results: Jim Lombardi, G., 21:47.6; Jerry Staub, G., 22:27; Pete Herslow, G., 23:29; Dave Bloomer, G., 23:32; Ed Salmon, G., 23:37; Pete Johnson, S., 23:49; Don Seiple, S., 24:12; Paul Filipek, S., 24:36; John Frederick, S., 24:49; Bill Pearson, S., 25:34.

UNIONTOWN ELEVEN WINS ELEVENTH TILT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Uniontown looks unstoppable now in its quest for the WPIAL Class AA title as the 1962 Pennsylvania scholastic football season draws near an end.

The Red Raiders continued Friday night the steamroller football that had smashed 10 straight opponents. Brownsville became the 11th victim on the short end of a 41-13 score. Monessen, which has a tie on its record, kept its faint chances alive with a 33-6 victory over New Kensington. Hempfield ended Greensburg's eight game winning streak with a 19-0 victory.

Lock Haven virtually cinched the West Central crown with a 32-20 triumph over Tyrone. State College defeated Bellefonte 25-12 in the same conference, but Lock Haven is undefeated against loop opponents.

BLAKELY WINS

Blakely solidified its hold on the northern division lead in the East Penn Conference by defeating Dunmore 26-0. Tamaqua, the southern division leader, smashed St. Clair 47-13. Old Forge, defending champion and current runner up in the southern division, defeated West Scranton 20-13.

William Penn of Harrisburg won its sixth straight in quest of the Central Penn title by defeating Reading 14-7. Defending champion John Harris plays today.

Erie Prep won its fourth straight title in the port city with an easy 40-6 conquest of Erie Academy.

Once-beaten Darby-Colwyn chilled Eddystone's claim for the Suburban Four title with a 26-20 victory.

Altoona made it nine in a row with a 19-6 triumph over Redstone. South Fayette chalked up number eight without a loss by beating Jefferson Morgan 33-6 and Fort Leboeuf won its ninth 20-7 over Lawrence Park.

Dr. Richard Shearer, assistant superintendent of public instruction in Harrisburg and a political science professor at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, said "the steam went of the Republican party three weeks ago" when Republicans in Philadelphia "bolted to support Dilworth for governor." The Democratic party has never been so well organized, has never had such well-qualified local candidates as in this election. He said the momentum has increased every week and "this crowd is typical" throughout the state. ## LSU, OLE MISS SCRAP TONIGHT FOR BOWL BID

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Louisiana State and Mississippi, a couple of terrors from the Old South, tangle tonight with national rankings and bowl bids adding spice to the historic rivalry.

The Orange and Sugar Bowls are almost certain to scramble for the winner, who also could move into the top three should Northwestern, Alabama or Southern California falter today.

There's only an outside chance, however, that the outcome of the clash between fourth-ranked LSU and sixth-ranked Mississippi will have much bearing on the Southeastern Conference standings, except maybe for second place.

ALABAMA UNBEATEN

For either to finish atop the conference standings, someone else must beat mighty Alabama, 4-0 in the conference and 5-0 over-all going into today's game with Mississippi State. Should "Bama" win, and they'll be favored all the way, they'll get the spot since they play more conference games than either LSU or Mississippi.

The Tigers from Baton Rouge are 5-0-1 for the season: Mississippi 5-0. Each is 3-0 in the league. Their only common opponent was Kentucky, vanquished by Mississippi 14-0 and beaten by LSU 7-0.

LSU is a three-point favorite in the only top-ranked night game on the schedule.

MIAMI WINS

Wiry George Mira passed for two touchdowns, scored another and set up the eventual winner in leading Miami from behind a 17-6 deficit to a 25-17 victory over Kentucky Friday night. In the only other major Friday game, Richmond rallied for two last: the Notre Dame-Navy game in quarter touchdowns and a 17-14 edge over George Washington.

Jerry Melynk put Buffalo in front 1-0 in the first period before the goals came fast and furious in the second. Jack McKenzie gave the Bisons a 2-0 lead only to have the Clippers bunch all their goals for a 3-2 advantage.

Vic Hadfield, Noel Price and player-coach Red Sullivan were the Baltimore marksmen, riddling DeJordy in a six-minute span. Cliff Schmutz gained the equalizer for Buffalo at 15:51 of the period. The Bisons then scored the tie-breaker at 16:40 of the finale and again with 26 seconds left.

DeJordy has been brilliant in Buffalo's unbeaten string, giving up only nine goals in the six games for a 1.50 goals-against average.

Auburn, unbeaten in five games and a recent arrival in the Top 10, was only a thin choice over Florida.

Reserves Fail To Stop Punt Return

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—Even the reserves got into the act on Johnny Anderson's 84-yard scoring punt return Friday night for Covington High School against William Fleming High.

The punt hit a Fleming player's leg, and an official threw his hat to mark the spot.

While the Fleming team looked on, thinking play was dead, Anderson picked up the ball and raced all the way to score. Three Fleming players came off the bench to the aid of their teammates on the field and tried to tackle Anderson, but he eluded them.

P.S. Fleming won anyway, 7-6.

BUFFALO TOPS CLIPPERS 5-3 FRIDAY NIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Goalie Denis DeJordy, a busy little beaver in the Buffalo Bisons nets, thrives on work—as the other American Hockey League clubs are finding out much to their dismay.

Buffalo turned back the Baltimore Clippers 5-3 in the only game played Friday night with the 5-9, 155-pound DeJordy making 45 saves. The victory extended the undefeated Bisons' winning streak to six.

The 23-year-old DeJordy got off to a rousing start with 20 saves in the opening period while holding Baltimore scoreless. The Clippers clipped him for all their three goals in the middle stanza. DeJordy regained his effectiveness in the last period, rebuffing Baltimore 13 times.

BREAK 3-3 TIE

Goals by Doug Robinson and Barry Cullen in the final four minutes snapped a 3-3 tie and gave the Bisons their victory. They lead the western division by four points over idle Rochester.

Jerry Melynk put Buffalo in front 1-0 in the first period before the goals came fast and furious in the second. Jack McKenzie gave the Bisons a 2-0 lead only to have the Clippers bunch all their goals for a 3-2 advantage.

Vic Hadfield, Noel Price and player-coach Red Sullivan were the Baltimore marksmen, riddling DeJordy in a six-minute span. Cliff Schmutz gained the equalizer for Buffalo at 15:51 of the period. The Bisons then scored the tie-breaker at 16:40 of the finale and again with 26 seconds left.

WILLIE MAYS CALLED OKAY

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Say hey... Willie Mays is okay.

Fears that baseball's highest paid player might be ailing were firmly crushed Friday by Dr. Harold H. Rosenblum, chief of medicine at Mt. Zion Hospital.

After checking the San Francisco Giants' slugger for three days, the physician reported: "Mays had a comprehensive physical examination that included all the routine tests. All yielded normal findings, his condition is perfectly healthy. There is no medical problem whatsoever. His condition is superior to other men his age (31). He is in prime physical condition."

Willie's health became a matter of concern for the National League champions when he collapsed in the dugout at Cincinnati on Sept. 12 and was out of the lineup three days.

Dr. Rosenblum said the collapse was due simply to exhaustion, pointing out, "It was a difficult season and he is aware of his responsibility."

The physician did not rule out possibility of a recurrence, but said, "He should know how to protect himself under similar circumstances."

Mays joined the Giants in 1951 as the effectiveness kid who'd holler, "Say hey." Now a mature veteran, he led the majors in homers this past season with 49 and knocked in 144 runs for his career high.

Castro Again Demands U.S. Abandon Guantanamo Base; Says "Strategic Arms" Gone

By GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro Thursday night rejected outright foreign supervision of the dismantling of Soviet missile bases in Cuba and again called for the United States to give up its naval base at Guantanamo.

The Cuban prime minister said "strategic arms," presumably the missiles being removed by the Soviets from Cuba, "but the rest of the weapons stay in our country."

Castro addressed a radio-television audience as Anastas I. Mikoyan, the Soviet Union's first deputy premier discussed the Cuban crisis with U.S. and U.N. officials in New York prior to flying here late today. His mission apparently was to try to remove the road-block Castro threw up after being excluded from U.S.-Soviet arrangements for removal of the missiles under U.N. supervision.

Castro acknowledged that "we have some motive for discontent" with the Soviet Union. But he reminded his people of all the Soviets had done for them and asserted, "We are friends of the Soviet Union."

Castro said U.N. inspection on Cuban soil would be "one more attempt to humiliate our country" and would violate Cuban sovereignty.

Sources at U.N. headquarters felt that Castro either would soften his stand or would announce the Soviet Union had completed dismantling its bases and U.N. inspection therefore no longer was necessary.

Acting U.N. Secretary-General

U Thant said after his conference Tuesday and Wednesday with Castro he had been informed the dismantlement of the bases would be completed by today. U.S. aerial observation, resumed Thursday along with the naval blockade, was expected to shed light on the dismantling progress.

Castro in a two-hour speech taken up largely by reading a transcript of his talks with Thant, revealed that the Soviet Union had proposed that the International Red Cross inspect its Cuba-bound ships to verify that they were not transporting arms. Thant said the Red Cross had agreed to the proposal provided Cuba agreed but that he had communicated the proposal to the U.S. government.

"PEACE WITH DIGNITY"

There was no immediate comment from Washington. In addition to insisting on U.S. withdrawal from Guantanamo, Castro repeated his previous demands for cessation of U.S. economic measures against his regime, attacks by Cuban exiles, and "violations of our aerial and naval space by North American U.S. planes and warships."

"If those guarantees of peace are not accepted," said Castro, "then there will not be any truly peaceful solution. We want a peaceful solution, but a peaceful solution with dignity."

Ask Court To End Pa. Discrimination

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania chiropractors asked Commonwealth Court Friday for an order to halt what they contended is discrimination for automobile drivers.

Under a two-year-old Pennsylvania law automobile drivers must pass physical examinations as condition of obtaining an operator's license.

The suit on behalf of all licensed chiropractors, contends that the state not only has refused to accept chiropractors' certifications of competency of drivers, but has "threatened to withdraw, revoke, or suspend licenses" of drivers certified by them.

The action was brought by Dr. Joseph W. Howe of New Cumberland and the Pennsylvania Licensed Chiropractors Association of Coatesville.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—The icebreaker Glacier sailed from Lyttelton Friday to lead the summer's first convoy to the U.S. Antarctic headquarters at McMurdo Sound.

The five-ship convoy is due at McMurdo Nov. 12. Unfavorable weather at present is preventing flights from New Zealand to the Antarctic.

PEACE DINNER BATTLE SCENE

NEW YORK (AP) — A Nobel Prize-winning scientist and an economist-author got into a heated argument over peace at a meeting Thursday night of advocates of nonviolence.

Some spectators made noisy exits as the scientist, Dr. Linus C. Pauling, and the economist-author, James P. Warburg, exchanged words.

Only moments before the outbreak, both had received the 1962 Gandhi Peace Award from Promoting Enduring Peace Inc., a nonprofit, nonpolitical, religious and educational organization.

The meeting began quietly enough with prayers, amenities and a letter of praise to Warburg from Adlai E. Stevenson, United States representative to the United Nations.

Warburg listened attentively while Dr. Pauling told of the perils of nuclear war, said that President Kennedy had made the bomb threat an instrument of American foreign policy and had unfortunately enabled Premier Nikita Khrushchev to seem the peacemaker in the recent Cuban crisis.

Then came Warburg's turn. He said he was surprised to hear Dr. Pauling suggest that "we (the United States) are the source of the trouble."

At that point, a man in the audience rose, waved his hands and yelled, "We are, we are!" Warburg spoke on, denouncing reported efforts in the past by Dr. Pauling and representatives from 27 countries to stop United States nuclear testing.

Tractors Need Special Care As Winter Weather Nears

By FRANK ZETTLER
County Farm Agent

Your tractor's cooling system needs special attention during cold winter months. Improper maintenance can result in a silt engine block or radiator — and a stiff repair bill.

To protect the cooling system against this damage the following is suggested:

Drain and flush the cooling system with a chemical cleaner. This gets rid of the accumulated rust and sludge which clogs up the narrow water passages in the radiator and engine block. This clogging can cause overheating.

Clean the leaves, dirt and insects from the radiator fins. Use an air blast or water hose. Air circulates freely through radiator fins. Inspect the radiator for leaks. If it leaks, have it repaired at a reliable radiator shop.

CHECK MANY ITEMS
Inspect all radiator hose connections for leaks. If the hoses are worn or cracked, install new ones. To do this, clean pipe connections and apply a thin layer of non-hardening sealing compound. Tighten hose clamps. Replace worn clamps.

Inspect the thermostats. See that they are working properly. Replace worn or dried out fan belts. Tighten or straighten loose or bent fan blades.

Prepare an antifreeze and water solution in the proportions recommended by the manufacturer. After thoroughly mixing, fill the radiator to a level within one-half of the top radiator tank.

Operate engine until temperature is normal. Then check water level. Add premixed solution if needed. Test solution with a hydrometer and make certain tractor is protected against freezing at the lowest likely temperature in the area.

VALUABLE FERTILIZER

Farmers should topdress with manure those fields where it will do the most good. The poorer the soil being plowed under for corn the more important it is to topdress it with manure. To produce top corn yields, large amounts of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are needed. A 10-ton manure application per acre reinforced with superphosphate is equivalent to about 500 pounds of 10-10-10 per acre.

Other places to use manure to good advantage are winter wheat fields that will be overseeded next spring to legumes. However, use only light applications (6 to 8 tons per acre) of a well-shredded straw manure. Apply during winter after the ground is frozen.

Permanent pastures which are mostly grass will also benefit from manure application this fall and winter. The best rate of application is 10 to 12 tons per acre.

Usually good legume stands should not be topdressed with manure. The nitrogen in the manure is not needed and can do some harm by stimulating grasses which will push out the legumes. If the field is to be plowed next year this is not a problem.

In all cases, reinforcing manure with superphosphate at the rate of 2 pounds per cow per day, or 50 pounds per ton of manure is recommended.

CONTROL CHICKWEED

This fall's weather has been ideal for spread of chickweed in some fields. Spraying in November or December will provide effective control. The use of chloro-IPC at

Fairfield

FAIRFIELD — Brownie Troop 756 held a Halloween party Wednesday in the Kindergarten room and prizes were awarded to Cindy Nagle, Ruth Rombin, Linda Shriver, Beverly Donaldson, Ruby Sanders, Jill McAndrews and Sandra Sease. Following games of the season, refreshments were served. Mrs. William Rombin and Mrs. Kenneth Sanders were in charge of the party.

The Misses Margie Thomas and Gertrude Hase and Hans Ruecker, of Washington and Stroudsburg, were weekend guests of Willie Lambrecht.

One hundred costumed members of St. John's United Church of Christ attended a Halloween party in the community building on Monday evening. Mrs. Kenneth Ickes, Rev. Robert Paden and Glen Deardorff served as judges to choose these winners: best looking couple, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Slonaker; ugliest, Judy Kane; prettiest, Ray Adelsberger; most original, Vonnie Adelsberger; funniest couple, juvenile, David Deardorff and Tammy Cluck; funniest adult couple, Linda and Nancy Ickes; prettiest juvenile, David Sites; most original, Dennis Bowling, and ugliest Tommy Gilmore. Church school teachers provided games after which refreshments were served.

the rate one-pound of actual chloro-IPC in 25 gallons of water per acre is recommended. Chloro-IPC is a liquid and contains four pounds of actual chloro-IPC per gallon. Thus, two pints of the material will make one-pound of actual chloro-IPC and will eliminate all grasses including timothy, homegrass and urchndgrass in alfalfa stands. For best results, use chloro-IPC spray when the temperature is less than 50 degrees.

Another chemical that can be used on August seedings of alfalfa and birdsfoot trefoil is water soluble dinitros, sold under several trade names. Spraying should be done when chickweed is less than 2 inches tall, generally in October or November. When the water soluble dinitros are used, the rate is 3 pints in 25 gallons of water per acre. For best results with dinitro spray when the temperature is 65 degrees or above.

Church Integrates In South Africa

EAST LONDON, South Africa (AP) — What is believed to be the first church in racially segregated South Africa formed especially for holding interracial services was opened in this Indian Ocean Port City recently.

Nine people — three whites, three coloreds (Eurafrican mulattoes) and three Africans — were received into the church as foundation members.

The service was attended by nearly 100 people of all races, with whites in the majority.

"There was no tension but a real gladness in being together," said the Rev. R. J. D. Robertson after the service in the new North End Presbyterian Church in Park St.

Mr. Robertson said he thought of forming a multi-racial church about four years ago.

His church is regarded as an experiment by the Presbyterian Church of South Africa. If it proves successful, more multi-racial churches will be opened in other centers.

DECOYS PROVED POINT

MIAMI (AP) — Russell C. Faber placed nine decoy ducks on a "pond" outside his office. He didn't get any ducks, but he did get a sewer.

Faber used the decoys to demonstrate how his street flooded, and stayed flooded, each time it rained. Several weeks later, the City of Miami installed a newer and larger sewer.

WARN ABOUT LETHAL GASES IN FARM SILOS

HARRISBURG — The Pennsylvania Department of Health today recommended the use of air line respirators and the "buddy system" for persons entering farm silos during the present harvest season.

Representatives of the Department's Division of Occupational Health said lethal concentrations of gases may exist inside silos during the harvest season. Four deaths and an undetermined number of serious injuries have already occurred this year from exposure to high concentrations of carbon dioxide and oxides of nitrogen or from lack of oxygen.

Occupational health experts suggested that these practical precautions be taken to minimize the danger of death or serious lung damage:

SUGGEST GAS MASK

1. The silo should not be entered unnecessarily.

2. Persons entering silos should use air line respirators similar to those used by divers and rescue workers and should use a life line and harness.

3. The "buddy system," whereby an adequately equipped co-worker is immediately at hand in case of emergency, should be utilized as a further precaution. A simple gas mask, such as those used by soldiers in wartime, may offer protection against oxides of nitrogen, but would be totally ineffective in cases where the silo is lacking oxygen.

URGENT VENTILATION

Health officials recommend that silos and chutes be well ventilated. Barn and stable areas adjacent to silos should also be well ventilated during the harvest season to prevent the accumulation

Divers Attempt To Recover Lead

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Upwards of 680 tons of lead are believed lying in Lake Michigan just off the lakefront here, and a group of young SCUBA divers has set out to recover as much of it as they can.

For more than 40 years, members of the Milwaukee Gun Club have been firing at clay targets at the club's lakeside headquarters. One mathematically inclined member said gunners fired about 500,000 shells a year. Each contains one and an eighth ounces of shot. So the yearly total roughs out at 35,156 pounds or more than 17 tons a year. This would mean 680 tons of lead under the waves.

The divers said they had obtained exclusive salvage rights from the Army Corps of Engineers.

DOGS WILL PAY

MIAMI (AP) — Dade County officials are going to the dogs — every single dog.

County manager Irving McNayr said only 20 to 30 per cent of the canines in greater Miami are being licensed.

So county employees this fall for unlicensed dogs. McNayr will make a door-to-door check said the anticipated additional revenue should put the county's animal control program on a self-sustaining basis.

of gases which might seep from silos. The dangers are as acute to cattle and to other farm animals as to humans.

Fencing off the silo area and making silo ladders inaccessible may help prevent injury or sudden death to children who may look upon silos as wonderful places to explore.

The particularly dangerous period for silo gases is from eight to 72 hours after silage has been poured into the silo and perhaps even longer, depending on the fermentation cycle of the silage.

Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants won the major league home run title in 1962 with 49. He hit two homers in the play-off with the Dodgers.

Behind-The-Scenes In The Cuban Crisis

BEHIND THE SCENES

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Here is the second article of the behind-the-scenes story of the Cuban crisis. Reiman Morin, Associated Press special correspondent and twice a Pulitzer Prize winner, tells of the backstage happenings in Washington during the critical days.

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy swirls today around the question: Was President Kennedy slow to recognize that the Soviets were molding Cuba into a powerful nuclear gun, aimed straight at the heart of the United States?

Republicans say he was.

"Those missile bases were there a long, long time before the President spoke," says Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., referring to Kennedy's statement of Oct. 22, when he proclaimed the "quarantine" on offensive weapons to Cuba.

In mid-September, Scott said, the Republicans had "very hard information" about Soviet missile sites in Cuba. The same facts were available to the administration, he says.

SUGGESTED BLOCKADE
Before that, on Sept. 8, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said he thought a blockade of Cuba to screen ships for incoming war material might be necessary.

This is what administration authorities say in reply:

"In late August, we began receiving reports from Cuban refugees and other sources of missile sites being built in Cuba. We think this is the same information Keating was getting.

"Every one of those reports was carefully checked.

"And in every case, they turned out to be reports of 'Samsites' or 'cruise sites.'"

"Samsite" is military shorthand for "surface-to-air missile site." In other words, a form of anti-aircraft. "Cruise site" is a type of coastal defense. Neither has the range to reach the United States. Technically, they could be considered in the category of defense weapons.

REPEATED ASSURANCES
The Soviet government had repeatedly told Kennedy that defensive weapons were the only type being installed in Cuba. "He received a stream of assurances, publicly and in private, to this effect," an authority says.

It was not until the week of Oct. 15, when reconnaissance spotted definite evidence of a rapid buildup that, figuratively, the alarm-bell rang, administration officers say.

In all versions of the story, officials stress the speed of the Soviet construction work — sometimes almost with grudging admiration.

EARLY DETECTIONS
A man who participated in all the decision-making conferences says "only four or five days" elapsed between evidence of the first bulldozer scars and the rise of installations that serve a missile site. "They couldn't have been detected earlier," he says.

Kennedy said in his statement of Oct. 22, "Within the past week, unmistakable evidence has established the fact that a series of offensive missile sites is now in preparation.

"He (Kennedy) was confronted with a set of new facts that required a new decision," an administration officer says.

CRITICAL POINT
Thursday, Oct. 18, is a critical point in the story.

On that day, after some 72 hours of intensive conferences, more new reconnaissance evidence from Cuba, and continual briefings based on it, the President was very close to making his decision—an arms blockade on Cuba. The die was not yet cast, but Kennedy was close to it.

And on that same day, he met in the White House with the Soviet Foreign Minister, Andrei A. Gromyko. Most of their conversation was about Berlin. Then Kennedy came around to Cuba.

He suddenly rose from his rocking chair, walked out of his office, and returned with copies of his statements in September on Cuba. He read them to Gromyko.

RESTATES ULTIMATE
On Sept. 13, he had said: "But let me make this clear once again. If at any time the Communist buildup in Cuba were to endanger or interfere with our security in any way or become an offensive military base of significant capacity for the Soviet Union, then this country will do whatever must be done to protect its own security and that of its allies."

Gromyko repeated the assurances that Soviet actions in Cuba were solely for "the purpose of contributing to the defense capabilities of Cuba."

Meanwhile, the conferences designed to hammer out a course of action were going on, full blast. There were various military alternatives; a sudden air strike, invasion, a blockade. Each had its proponents. The arguments were hot and heavy. The President did not participate in them.

BLOCKADE BEST COURSE
Gradually, the consensus seemed to be veering toward the blockade as the best course.

Those in the conferences recognized, however, that the blockade would only stop the inflow of weapons. It would not by itself dismantle the missile sites.

Top officials of the White House and the Departments of Defense, State and Justice participated in the conferences. Later, two experts on Communist operations were called in. They were Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen and Llewellyn E. Thompson. Both have served as ambassadors to Moscow and have long experience in Soviet affairs.

ADVICE SOUGHT
Their advice was sought on two questions: "What are the Russians up to in Cuba? What will they do if . . . ?"

Kennedy came into the talks only when the conferees had reached virtual agreement on some specific points. He did not sit in on the long discussions. He seldom commented. Mostly he asked questions—"I want to know how many days this would take," or who's handling that?"

Often, he directed further study of a point.

By Saturday, Oct. 20, he was able to say:

"All right, we'll go with the blockade. But I want to have another talk in the morning."

Next: Military buildup and the veil of secrecy.

ARREST HANOVER MAN
Roy Clinton Reaver, Hanover, was placed in the county jail Friday charged by state police before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with larceny of apples and gasoline from the Blue Ribbon Orchards of the C. H. Muselman Co. State police said Reaver and two juveniles allegedly stopped at the Blue Ribbon Orchard where they reportedly led cans in their car with gasoline and took apples.

NEW GROUP ACQUIRES RENS
PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Rens once again are back in the American Basketball League, under new management.

League commissioner Abe Saperstein announced Friday that the Pittsburgh franchise, dropped by Lenny and Eugene Litman of Pittsburgh for financial reasons, has been awarded to a new group, General Sports, Inc., headed by fight promoter Bill Rosensohn of Philadelphia.

General Sports is a subsidiary of General Bowling Corp., operator of bowling establishments in Pennsylvania, New York, and Washington, D.C.

Rosensohn will be president of the new outfit, with Sidney Barkenfeld of New York vice president, and Joe Gordon of Pittsburgh general manager, the same role he held with the Rens last year.

Saperstein said the ABL will operate with six teams as one division this year — Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Philadelphia, Oakland, Long Beach and Chicago. A league playoff will be held similar to the Stanley Cup playoffs of the National Hockey League he added.

Nixon's Campaign Manager Sues Dems For $2 Million

By CHARLES MAHER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager charges in a $2-million damage suit that Democrats are "furiously peddling smears" in an effort to alienate Nixon from Negro and Jewish voters.

This charge, emphatically denied by Democratic leaders, is the latest in a series of legal actions that have suddenly made the courtroom an important battleground in California's turbulent gubernatorial campaign.

H. R. Haldeman, campaign manager of the Nixon-for-Governor Committee, charged in a Superior Court damage action filed Friday that "one piece of Democratic literature implied falsely that the former vice president was anti-Semitic" and another falsely impugned his honesty.

ISSUE DENIAL

Democratic campaign officials denied they had anything to do with the political leaflets named by Haldeman.

Haldeman's suit is one of five legal actions that have been brought in the last month of the campaign.

The Democratic State Central Committee has obtained three different restraining orders prohibiting further distribution of campaign material attributed to the Republicans.

The anti-Nixon leaflets cited in the suit filed by Haldeman are titled "Questions Nixon Won't Answer About the $205,000 Hughes Tool Co Loan" and "Do You Want This Kind of Governor in California?"

Haldeman said the first leaflet involves a loan made several years ago to Nixon's brother Donald and unfairly questions Nixon's honesty.

The second leaflet, Haldeman said, purports to be a reproduction of a deed to a home purchased by Nixon in Washington, D.C., 11 years ago and implies Nixon was a party to a deed restriction against Jews. Haldeman said this leaflet is a "complete fakery of a 1951 deed in which a restrictive covenant clause was inserted into the deed form, which Nixon and Mrs. Nixon signed."

"When they signed that piece of paper," Haldeman said, "that restrictive covenant clause was not in it, as is now shown in the smear sheet. . . . The Democrats are distributing this phony anti-Semitic deed in a packet of literature containing a sample marked ballot."

"DUTY POLITICS"

"This is dirty politics and the (Democratic) campaign organization knows it," he said. "They are furiously peddling smears in the Negro and Jewish sections of Los Angeles, deliberately trying to stem the voter tide toward Nixon."

Defendants in Haldeman's suit are the Democratic State Central Committee and three Democratic officials, including Eugene L. Wyman, the state chairman.

"Democratic headquarters issued a statement saying 'neither the Democratic State Central Committee nor the Committee to re-elect Gov. Brown has ever seen the material on which the suit is based and had nothing whatsoever to do directly or indirectly with its planning, production or distribution."

Of the restrictive covenant mentioned in the suit the Democratic statement said: "Nixon himself told a conference of ministers in Los Angeles last Wednesday that he had signed such a covenant."

LIBRARY MAY

plication, and a preliminary discussion showed that Adams County is classified as an area eligible for such help and that plans such as are contemplated for the library are within the scope of the work for which the grants are made.

AMOUNT UNCERTAIN

The exact amount to be sought from the federal government was not announced Friday night. The officers of the board are to confer with architect J. Alfred Hamme next week to secure an estimate of the cost.

Reports to the board showed the library to be in unusually good financial condition. A $1,500 donation from the Emma G. Muselman Foundation was turned over to the board by Allen Stauffer. At the same time Mrs. Edwin Killalea, representing the Friends of the Library, said they will present a check for $3,000 to the library board as a result of action by its board at a recent meeting. The formal presentation will take place at the annual meeting of the Friends of the Library. The action, she said, left the Friends of the Library with $51 in its treasury.

STATE GRANT

Receipts of $9,414.64 from the state was announced. The amount apparently covers the period ending next summer. Originally under the library program the libraries which qualified, such as the one here, were to receive a grant representing 25 cents per capita. The amount actually received represents slightly less than six cents per capita. However, the sum is much higher than the library would receive under the original program for support from the state. Previously the library received $8,000 per year while the county was a Seventh Class county. When it became Sixth Class, the amount under the old program would have been reduced to $4,750.

The report of Treasurer Frank Hewetson showed income of $9,755.79 during the month, which with a $4,071.58 balance brought the total to $13,827.37. Expenditures totaled $3,927.52, leaving a balance of $9,899.85. Expenditures included $1,888.23 for books and $1,884.67 for salaries.

$5,103 MORTGAGE

The report showed the mortgage on the present building to be $5,103.22. Each year the library has reduced the amount of the mortgage in December and the finance committee was urged to consider a possible major reduction in the mortgage next December because of the funds on hand.

The librarian's report showed 4,326 books purchased so far this year, 360 in October. The library has 36,187 books on hand.

Circulation of books during the month totaled 8,365, of which 4,825 was through the main library, the rest through schools, stations and direct service.

One bookmobile was on loan for the last three weeks to Chester County Library, Mrs. Mary Wilson reported. The bookmobile was used to demonstrate to the people of that county the nature of a bookmobile in an effort to secure public financial support by the LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Dr. A. C. Baugher, 69, moderator of the Church of the Brethren in 1956-57 and president emeritus of Elizabethtown College, died Friday in a hospital.

BOSTON (AP) — Dr. Godfrey Lowell Cabot, 101, scientist and philanthropist who founded the Cabot Corp. at age 21, died Friday.

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Florence Carpenter, 62, mother of astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter, died Friday of a hemorrhage.

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Lester H. Ramer, a letter carrier for 32 years, has been held in $1,000 bond for federal court on charges of mail theft.

Postal inspector John D. Burdon of Philadelphia said Ramer was charged with embezzling a parcel mailed by the U.S. mint to W. Wallace of York. Burdon said two letters containing money and 16 coin sets valued at $33.60 also were missing from the mails.

Ramer waived his hearing Thursday before U.S. Commissioner William Anderson, York.

Russia Was Forced To Admit She Lied About Missile Bases In Cuba

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — One of truly big casualties of the Cuban crisis is world disarmament, unless the Soviets cave in on this, too.

The problem can be simply stated: The United States has always argued that before there could be any disarmament there must be international inspection to prevent cheating.

The Soviet Union has rejected inspection. This, it said, was just a form of spying.

The result has been more and more armaments on both sides. But the Russians lied about the missiles they were setting up in Cuba. They insisted up to the last that they were just giving Fidel Castro defensive weapons.

RED BACKED DOWN

Then when President Kennedy forced a showdown — with photographs of the missile bases in Cuba and a demand they be removed — Premier Khrushchev no longer pretended the weapons in Cuba were just defensive.

He backed down and agreed to remove them.

This therefore has a direct bearing on any future American-Soviet talks about disarmament because of the obvious question:

How could the Russians ever be believed — if they agreed to destroy some of their weapons — unless there was a fool-proof inspection system to make sure they weren't lying again?

If now the Russians keep their word and remove the missiles from Cuba this will still be no reason for the United States to take their unchecked word on disarmament in the future.

FACED HUMILIATION

The Russians promised to pull their weapons out of Cuba because they knew, if they didn't, the United States might invade Castro's domain.

If that happened and the Soviets didn't go to Castro's aid, they would have suffered a worse defeat and humiliation than by meekly agreeing to remove the missiles which would have been the cause of war in the first place.

And they probably wouldn't have gone to his help because Cuba was the wrong place for them to have a war.

DEMAND INSPECTION

After the Russian performance in Cuba, American public opinion probably would prevent any president from making an American-Soviet disarmament agreement without inspection.

Khrushchev agreed to some kind of U.N. inspection of the missile removal although he never spelled out how, either on the spot as it happened or afterwards when the inspectors could be shown empty bases but not missiles.

Thursday night Castro announced he wouldn't permit any U.N. inspection at all. This, intentionally or not, enables Khrushchev to avoid the inspection he agreed to if there's no change in the situation.

MAY HAUNT THEM

The Soviet lies about the missile buildup in Cuba will come back to haunt them if in the future they were to seriously want disarmament but balk at inspection. It's questionable either side so far has ever truly wanted disarmament, despite all their talks. And, for some time to come, probably neither side will want it.

The 17 years since World War II have been a period of frantic development of both nuclear weapons and long-range missiles which, in the possession of either side, would be the best insurance against attack, as Cuba proved.

But until recently the United States and Russia had pretty much of a monopoly in this field of fantastic weaponry. The monopoly is sure to end and is ending now. France has been building its own atomic force.

RED CHINA—?

Red China in time will do the same. So may others, like West Germany, although that may seem unthinkable at this moment.

Even if the United States and Russia agreed on disarmament, it would be ridiculous without agreement by Red China. And, unless Red China was part of such an agreement, the United States and Russia could hardly dare disarm.

The problem with an American-Soviet agreement to ban nuclear tests is not quite the same as getting rid of weapons. Both sides, through refined detecting devices, might be able to check on tests without on-the-spot inspection.

MIMI BENZELL HAS "EYE" ON CALORIE DIET

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Just about the only thing that Mimi Benzell does not do to preserve the will power of her dieting guests is weigh them in and out of her house.

The former opera star who is as expert with the scales figuratively as she is musically entertains her weight conscious friends and neighbors with calorie counting dinner parties.

"I have always been very considerate about people watching that they don't eat too much," says trim, 5 foot 2 Mimi. "I know myself what a struggle it is to keep on a diet."

TAGS COURSES

Consequently every morsel she serves from the hors d'oeuvres and drinks to the main course bears a little tag indicating the calories in each.

Instead of warning signs, these are signs of encouragement, for the counts are low.

Mimi's canapés, for example, are made of egg plant doctored to taste with vinegar, celery, green peppers and herbs. Or she beats low-fat cottage cheese into a cream cheese consistency and embellishes that.

FATLESS MEAT

She offers low calorie gin drinks, "but my friends don't drink much." Her main course is a fatless meat, such as chicken prepared with bouillon, and surrounded with vegetables.

"They are on their own with the desserts," claims Mimi who began to collect low calorie recipes after a friend delighted her by serving a piece of chocolate cake with almost none in it.

The busy singing star, who nev-

Arrest Two In Woman's Murder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police Friday arrested two young men for the murder of Mrs. Claire Kramer. They said they were seeking a third, who may have been the actual killer.

Charged with homicide were Rodney Langnas, 19, who already was in custody on a charge of burglarizing the Kramer home, and Leonard Engler, 24.

Police said Langnas implicated 22-year-old Lonnie Johnson, alleging he was the one who savagely killed the 42-year-old woman in her West Philadelphia home October 11, with a tire iron.

Investigators said they are seeking Johnson.

Langnas was one of two young men being held for a series of alleged burglaries totaling $30,000 from the Kramer home.

Investigators said Langnas robbed the home the day of the murder, then returned to the scene with the other two, remaining outside while they went in. They said Mrs. Kramer was attacked as she lay on a sofa. The house was ransacked, but nothing further was taken.

ertheless does most of her own cooking, does bake and serve up some cakes and pies checkfull of diet-damaging ingredients. Then she discourages the corpulent guests from eating these by decorating them with red "danger" flags.

GO-AHEAD DESSERTS

However she puts an end to the salivary gland tortures by quickly serving a choice of also tempting low calorie desserts topped with green go-ahead signals.

To inspire her visitors to continue to the fat countdown game, Mimi leaves a calorie booklet at each plate.

Even without guests, Mimi, her husband and business manager Walter Gould, their youngsters Jennifer, 4, and Jonathan, 8, persist with the calorie vigil.

EARLY RESOLUTION

"I remember examining my grandmother's wedding picture when I was still quite young. She was quite . . . uh rotund . . . and I decided then and there not to let the pounds add up on me." Even an operatic career with the Metropolitan where ample divas were the rule, not the exception, did not deter her.

Walter, a lean 172 pounds, had a sweet tooth when she married him, says Mimi who is currently the star of the Broadway musical comedy, "Milk and Honey."

"Now he's as food conscious as I am." They cater to the children's cravings for sweets with a lollipop now and then and small chocolate tidbits. "But thank goodness they adore fruits and all sorts of stinky cheeses."

YOUNGSTERS' TEETH

Concern for the youngsters' teeth, rather than their weight, prompts Mimi to serve them calorie-less soft drinks in the summer and to make sodas from soda water and frozen juices and fruits.

Mimi Benzell employs several other means of keeping the avoid- droids under control.

"I never have the place stocked with stuff to nibble on. That's anyone's downfall. I never cook with sugar, seldom even saccharin. And I use very little salt. The meats are usually the lean types like chicken and veal, and we never have gravies. Potatoes, yes, but baked."

BABY SITTERS MUST EXTEND PERSONALITY

The Associated Press

Want to be a successful baby sitter?

Woo the small fry, for competition is keen in some communities, if you develop child-appeal now, you've got it made.

One 8-year-old volunteered that even his mother could not be a good baby sitter because "she isn't the type." When asked to define "the type," he and his playmates did so cheerfully.

It seems that some baby sitters are "in," some are "out," and some are "far out" and may never get back in.

In their own words, "ins" include:

"Young girls, instead of other kids' mothers who are always try-

British Civil War Buff Tours U.S. Battlefields; Visited Here Last June

LEXINGTON, Va. (AP) — British Civil War buffs preparing a small scale invasion of the United States next year have sent over a pathfinder.

He is Tom Glaser, who has mapped a route of battlefield tours in Pennsylvania and other states. Glaser is the spearhead for the American Civil War Round Table of London.

At least 20 of the approximate 100 members of the round table plan to tour the Civil War battlefields and historical points next year.

Glaser is not only a Civil War buff, but a buff of other small wars. He had made an intensive study of other conflicts before studying the American Civil War.

JOINED CADETS

Glaser stopped by the Virginia Military Institute, where he joined cadets in firing antique weapons. At Harpers Ferry he dressed as a Confederate and participated in the re-enactment of a skirmish.

He found the old Civil War weapons have less kick and "are less terrifying" than he had expected. He hit a few targets, but in general his shooting was "pretty mediocre."

The London group of Civil War buffs began when several friends saw the motion picture "Gone With the Wind," and subsequently got into a heated discussion of the war. They decided to organize the round table where they could discuss their interest more fully — and probably a little more amicably.

PRESERVE GRAVE

The club's first project, and one that it still maintains, was to preserve the grave of a Confederate naval commander and blockade runner, Cmdr. James Bulloch, who is buried in Liverpool.

A grandson of the Confederate commander, appropriately named Jeb Stuart Bulloch, lives in Australia and has a life membership in the London round table.

Glaser said the members of the British club are predominantly "rebel" in sentiment. As he explains it, "we're so detached from the war that we can be romantic about it, and the romantic side definitely lies with the South."

In fact, the rebel sentiment is so strong that several members got tiffed enough to resign when the club's name was changed from the Confederate Research Club to its present title.

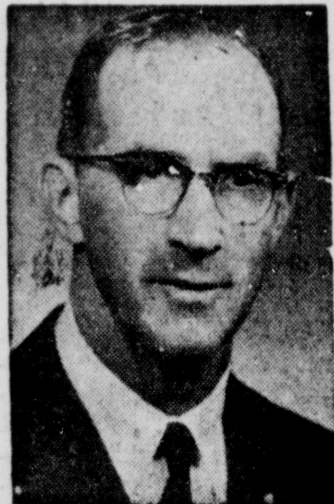

Glaser's visit to the United States was financed by his father as a graduation present.

Glaser said he has gotten the VIP treatment everywhere he's gone. "Everybody's been extremely kind," he said.

In 1818, most goods imported into Ohio passed through Philadelphia.

MIAMI GUIDE SERVICE IS HIT BY CUBA CRISIS

By JIM BECKER

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The tight-lipped policy surrounding the military buildup in this city 90 miles from Cuba appears to have extended to the town tour guides.

The drivers of the "Conch Train" that Rambles through Key West streets carrying tourists, mustle the sightseers right past barbed wire barricades, sand-bagged machine gun positions, black-painted submarines and anti-aircraft missiles without giving them a passing mention.

The guides interrupt their prepared spiel only once in the two-hour tour to comment on the obvious buildup.

"Here you see a little of the equipment the Army brought down," the guide says, in the understatement of the month, as the train—a jeep decorated like a railroad locomotive pulling miniature observation cars—rolls past the missiles stacked in their launchers.

HUSH CIVIL WAR

Actually, the guides are even tight-lipped about the Civil War. They point out two forts built here during that conflict, but fail to mention their origin or purpose.

This may be a new high in security even for Key West, where GIs in the past few days have even refused to give their names to pretty girls trying to scrape up an acquaintance.

The Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force all rushed units to Key West, closest American territory to Cuba, when the crisis over Soviet missile bases erupted. They all arrived with orders to ignore newsmen on sight.

Even the fellow in charge of telling reporters that the men can't give out their names can't give out his name.

And the only way reporters can get on the Navy's ship base is to disguise themselves as tourists and take the dollar tour, which runs right through there.

SURRENDERS AS SUSPECT IN SLAYING

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A tall, goateed ex-convict, sought in the bludgeoning slaying of Mrs. Claire Kramer, surrendered quietly to an assistant district attorney Friday night while police watched his home and scoured the city for him.

The surrender of Lonnie Johnson, Jr., 24, came only hours after police announced he had been implicated in the crime by two other young men.

Police Commissioner Albert N. Brown said Johnson would be arraigned later today.

Johnson's accusers — Rodney Mrs. David S. Kammerer Jr. was a guest.

Ronald Beford, a student at the University of Detroit, Detroit, Mich., is spending the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urban L. Beford, Charles St. He will return to Detroit Sunday evening via plane from Friendship Airport, Baltimore.

CRIMINAL LIBEL

EAST STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Republican Gerald A. Snyder is free on $1,500 bail on a charge of criminal libel filed by Democrat Assemblyman Van D. Yetter Jr., who he seeks to unseat Tuesday.

Yetter filed the charge Friday with Justice of the Peace Chester Staples. He accused Snyder of maliciously delivering a false and libelous statement for publication in the Stroudsburg Daily Record.

Snyder pleaded innocent. Staples scheduled a hearing Monday—the day before election.

Langnas, 19, and Leonard Engler, 24, both Philadelphia—were held without bail on burglary and homicide charges earlier Friday.

At their hearing, police testified both had signed statements admitting a part in the crime but naming Johnson as the one who savagely beat Mrs. Kramer to death with a tire iron last Oct. 11.

Detectives quoted the two as saying Mrs. Kramer, 42-year-old wife of a grocer, had surprised Johnson and Engler as they entered her West Philadelphia home to burglarize it.

Commissioner Brown said Johnson had turned himself in to Asst. Dist. Atty. Richard T. Sprague. Johnson's attorney arranged the surrender, Brown said.

FIRST WEAPONS FROM U.S. IN INDIAN HANDS

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI (AP) — The first plane loads of American weapons for the hard-pressed Indian army arrived today and were rushed northward to troops bracing for a threatened new drive by Chinese Communist forces.

Two American C133 transports from Germany landed in Calcutta with automatic rifles, mortars, anti-personnel mines and other equipment to beef up outnumbered Indian forces facing the well equipped Communists. But U.S. Ambassador John K. Galbraith told Indians they should not hope for magic results.

A steady stream of the American jet transports, arriving at the rate of one every three hours, will continue the arms buildup. Heavier equipment, such as tanks, was expected by ship within a few weeks.

INDIA GIVES GROUND

The U.S. weapons were headed to camps immediately behind the front lines on the northeast frontier, Indian officers said. Indian troops were driven back in this strategic area, above the thickly-settled plains of Assam, in an initial Chinese onslaught that one Indian officer called a massacre.

Chinese forces have paused in their drive for several days, apparently waiting for reinforcements.

Additional military attaches arrived at the U.S. Embassy here, evidently to instruct Indians in the use of complicated equipment that was expected later.

In London, American and British officials conferred on coordinating arms shipments that up to now have gone separately. The talks also covered proposals to put all aid on a lend-lease basis.

SERGEANT ON 'COPTER KILLED BY COMMIE FIRE

By MALCOLM BROWNE

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Army sergeant flying as a crewman on an escort helicopter was hit by Communist fire today and died before reaching Saigon.

The sergeant, whose name was not released, was aboard one of five U.S. Army turbine powered HU-1A escort helicopters.

Armed with rockets and machine guns, these helicopters are used to protect lightly armed troop-carrying helicopters from ground fire.

The helicopter was hit 90 miles southwest of here near the Mekong River delta town of Vinh Long. This was the first casualty suffered by escort helicopters, which have been in action only about one month.

CONG INVOLVED

Heavy ground fire met the attacking helicopters when they arrived for an operation this morning. A large Viet Cong unit was believed involved.

There was heavy contact in the same area Friday when an estimated 51 guerrillas were killed in a series of small actions.

The helicopter in which the crewman was hit was not seriously damaged, and was able to continue flying. There were no initial reports of the result of ground action, and it was not known whether there were enemy casualties.

The National Basketball Association is in its 17th season.

"ASK YOURSELF"

How many miles have you traveled . . . where have your footprints been . . . how many time have you lost your way . . . how many times did you win . . . how many tears did your heart shed . . . how many times were you fair . . . how many jobs did you gather . . . in your wild quest for gold . . . and of the prizes you have gained . . . how many can you hold . . . how many times have you truly loved . . . or were you prone to hate . . . ask yourself and be honest . . . the hour is getting late.

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Mao Tze-tung hopes the Soviet people will one day rise against Premier Khrushchev, says a former member of a Communist Chinese legation.

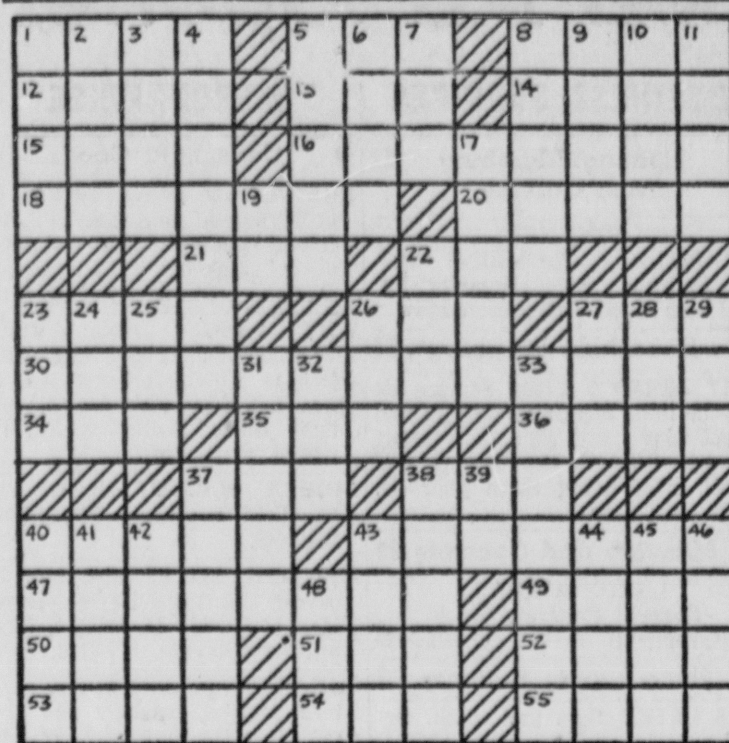

Chao Fu, 27, former security officer of the Red Chinese legation in Stockholm who fled to the West last August, said Mao hopes the Soviet people will recognize Khrushchev's anti-Stalinism as anti-Communist.

The Chinese leader said recently "whoever is against Stalin is against Mao." Fu reported. Fu made the statements at a news conference held by the West German intelligence service on Wednesday. Publication of the interview was barred until today to give the refugee time to leave the area.

The original Liberty Bell was ordered from England in 1751 to hang in the Pennsylvania State House, now known as Independence Hall.

BOATMEN IN DISTRESS

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Weekend pleasure boaters in the lower Florida Keys are protected by the Key West Civil Air Patrol's unique "Dusk Patrol."

The volunteer pilots, who pay their own expenses, check the waters in the vicinity of the Keys from 6 to 7 p.m. every Saturday and Sunday for boatmen who may be in distress. If trouble is spotted, the pilots radio the Coast Guard to come to the rescue.

WHAT HE ALWAYS WANTED

TARRANT CITY, Ala. (AP) — Tarrant policeman Dewey Reeves, who operates an auto service station as a sideline, won a prize in a pistol match.

It was a free wash and lubrication job for his car — at a competitor's service station.

The story is told about a certain Common Pleas Court in the land where it was discovered at the close of the session, after the jury has been dismissed, that there was still one case to be tried. The judge, looking around the Court Room, observed that there were 14 attorneys still in attendance. To expedite matters he empaneled a Jury of 12 of the attorneys to proceed to try the case.

After all the evidence was in the jury withdrew to deliberate. One hour passed, two, three, four, five — and no word came from the jury room.

The judge becoming somewhat disturbed, went to the jury room to learn the cause of the delay. To his great dismay he found that the members of the jury had just completed the fourth nominating speech for the office of Foreman of the jury.

Woody Woodbury Host To "Who Do You Trust?"

Woody Woodbury, host of ABC-TV's "Who Do You Trust," seen Monday through Friday.

CHARLES J. LEAVY

The name Woody Woodbury may sound like a character out of Walt Disney but it's not. As we approached the Little Theater next door to Sardi's Nest, emblazoned on the marquee was the legend "Who Do You Trust" starring

Woody Woodbury, ABC-TV, Monday through Friday, 3:30 to 4 p.m. Although we arrived about ten minutes after the show began, the head usher quietly led us into the control room. There looking directly on the the stage and surrounded by five separate images, we were sharply brought back to our senses. Not only was Woody Woodbury not a character out of Disney, but he was a most live and dynamic personality out of the current American entertainment field.

It was at the Bahama Hotel in

Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where we first saw him about five years ago. At that time we enjoyed his performance so well that we recall saying that he would go far.

WITHOUT EMCEE

When Johnny Carson, the former emcee of "Who Do You Trust," accepted the "Tonight Show" spot, ABC was left with a popular show without a master of ceremonies at that time. Don Fedderson was in Chicago and saw Woody's performance at Mister Kelly's.

"The next day Mr. Fedderson phoned me and asked if I would be interested in taking over the job," Woody told us later. "Realizing the opportunity that was being offered me, I made my decision to accept on the spot."

Back stage after the show, it was interesting to note how the friendliness and joviality of the show on camera was carried on after the show was over. Woody was consoling the losing contestant and joking with the winner almost as if they were old friends.

During the interview in Johnny Carson's old dressing room and office above the theater, we found that this friendliness was so natural and part of Woody that, after a few minutes of conversation with him, we felt that we were old friends.

When we complimented him on his affability, Woody laughed and said, "Taking over the reins of 'Who Do You Trust' presents a fine challenge for me and should be fun in the process. Personally, my ultimate goal is to be decent and funny and respectful with everybody. In the long run it would appear to me the contestants, studio and viewing audiences deserve the best I can give them."

Although Woody spoke knowingly about the current comedians on the scene today, he made it clear that, "I don't consider myself basically a comedian. I'm an entertainer."

Mentioning Bob Hope, Jackie Gleason and Red Skelton as his idea of the foremost comedians of the day, we asked Woody about the comedians of tomorrow.

"TALENT WILL OUT"

Leaning back in his swivel chair and still smiling, Woody said, "They'll be arriving steadily as they have in the past. Some will be in the right place at the right time and make it big. Others equally facile and talented just won't make it at all. They say 'talent will out.' It's probably the rule rather than the exception, but like any other creative situation, it's not iron-clad."

"With vaudeville presently in a nearly extinct form, I would

Woody Woodbury

strongly urge, advise and recommend nightclubs as the place to make the start. Of course, the clubs will be small, the pay low, but the experience will give an entertainer great insight to the behavior patterns of large groups of people. It's a great training ground for a future in television. Remember, Red Skelton, Bob Hope and Danny Thomas are just a few of the top comedians who began with clubs."

Woody's own supper club career began as a result of a "coming out" party for him. It was back in 1947 in Jacksonville, Fla., when Woodbury, who served during World War II as a Marine pilot and instructor, was being given a "getting out" party at which he accompanied the "singers" on the piano. The owner of the club where the party was held, impressed with the antics of the leatherneck, offered him a job.

IMMEDIATE SUCCESS

Woodbury was an immediate success and has been a top-rated supper club entertainer and recording star ever since, except for two years in Korea as a jet fighter pilot with 106 missions to his credit. It was in Korea that Woody, a major, and John Glenn, later to become the famed astronaut, became close friends as members of the same combat group attached to the Marine Aviation Guard.

Following his success in Jacksonville, Woody signed for a two-week engagement at the renowned Clover Club in Miami where he remained three years to perform before SRO audiences.

Though his home base has been the Chart Room in the Bahama Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he has entertained capacity crowds for five years, Woody has traveled through the country appearing at numerous comedy concerts. He completed a record-breaking engagement at Mister Kelly's in Chicago, was awarded two gold records for his series of comedy albums and appeared in the movie "Safe at Home" with Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and William Frawley.

We enjoyed the interview so much that we were reluctant to leave. However, we were so impressed with him that we were sure this new opportunity was only the beginning for him, and

WISHES FOR WORLD PEACE

The Cuban crisis has brought a change in the desires of would-be participants on "Queen for a Day."

Emcee Jack Bailey reports hundreds of wish cards filled out by the studio audience hoping for world peace, safety for their families and shelter in case of emergency.

Ordinarily, these wishes number five or six a week, with the remainder dealing with more personal matters.

NOODLES, NOODLES

Hong Kong's "Noodle Priest," Msgr. John Romaniello, received a $1,000 check from the emcee of "Queen for a Day" Jack Bailey, to fulfill the wish of a recent queen.

Mrs. Mimi Weeks of Long Beach, Calif., received the crown on the basis of her winning wish for a noodle making machine.

that we would be seeing a lot more of him from now on.

She told Bailey that she had learned of Msgr. Romaniello's program to feed a million refugees on noodles made from U. S. surplus grain, from her husband, Navy Lt. Theodore Weeks, who was stationed there.

The Maryknoll priest, author of "Escape From Red China," started the feeding program as director of Catholic Relief Services at Hong Kong.

The "Queen for a Day" noodle unit will be added to the 23 machines now in operation at 18 locations.

Msgr. Romaniello is visiting the United States to try to start a similar noodle program in South America.

PRACTICE MAKES IMPERFECT

It takes a heap of practice to be a failure. That's the considered opinion of one of the most successful failures in show business,

TOPIC—WOMEN

Author—TV Male Stars

A survey was made to find out what some male TV stars would compare the women of today. Here are some of the conclusions:

"Women are like stoves — always needing a new lid."

"Women are like magazines — lots of fiction beneath their jackets."

"Women are like guitars — often picked on by their friends."

"Women are like some TV shows — subject to change without notice."

"Women are like automobiles — often running people down."

Then, having likened women to something or other, they came comic-magician Carl Ballentine. He has made a career of the inability to work a successful trick and is currently entertaining the troops on the back lot at Revue Studios in Hollywood.

to the same conclusion:

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE WOMEN

Buddy Ebsen of "Beverly Hillbillies" tells of the farmer whose mule sat down and refused to get up. A passing stranger offered to get the mule for him. "If you can do that you're a better man than I am," said the farmer. The stranger said, "Hurrah for Castro." And the mule got up on its feet quickly. "You see," exclaimed the stranger, "all jackasses stand up when they hear that."

Rick Jason of "Combat" is a gourmet to the extent that he does his own baking of bread in preference to eating the "assembly line" product.

Jack Lord of "Stoney Burke" was a star football player in college. Following graduation from New York University, he was offered berths with the Philadelphia Eagles and the Cleveland Rams.

An employee of the American Humane Society, is always on hand, when animals are used in a series, to make sure that the animals are handled carefully and treated properly.
